HOMECOMING PARADE. MA
DONNA, A 5- YEAR-OLD BULL
DOG CONVINCINGLY POR
TRAYED THE SCHOOL MASCOT

IN HER DEBUT PERFOMANCE.

JAMIE REPORTED THAT MA-

SHE JUMPED OFF OF THE FLOAT HALF WAY THROUGH THE PARADE. "MADONNA DIDN'T REALLY LIKE THE PARADE. IT MADE HER NERVOUS. A LOT OF PEOPLE MADE OVER HER AND PETTED HER. SHE'S A FRIENDLY DOG, BUT SO MANY PEOPLE AROUND UPSET HER," JAIME SAID. MADONNA NOT ONLY POSSESSES ONE OF THE FATTEST TONGUES IN DOG HISTORY, BUT IT MEASURES A FULL EIGHT INCHES IN LENGTH AS WELL. INTO THE BUILDING IN AUGUST, STU-ED WHAT CHANGES WOULD OCCUR SINCE HAD A NEW PRINCIPAL, A NEW ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL, NEW SUPERINTENDENT, THE STUDENTS EXPRESSED A "WAIT AND SEE" ATTITUDE AT FIRST, BUT LATER ON DE-CIDED THAT THEY WERE INDEED "IN FOR SOME SUR-PRISES." "IT'S ALL GOOD" DESCRIBED OUR THOUGHTS ABOUT THE NEW DELI ADDED IN THE CAFETERIA HOW-EVER CANCELLED CLASSES. THE DETERIORATING CONDI-TIONS OF THE BUILDING, AND THE STRICT CONDITIONS OF SATURDAY SCHOOL MADE STUDENTS WONDER IF THEY SHOULD "THROW IN THE TOWEL," OR "PREPARE FOR THE NEXT ROUND." DECIDING TO TAKE THE LATTER ACTION. THOSE STUDENTS DENIED A WELDING CLASS PICKETED IN FRONT OF THE SCHOOL AND MANAGED TO GET THE CLASS PUT BACK ON THE SCHEDULE. THE CATCH PHRASE, "WE WANT WELDING" COULD BE HEARD THROUGH THE CLASS-ROOM WINDOWS MOST OF THE DAY.

FOR THE FIRST THREE MONTHS OF SCHOOL, THE NOISE FROM THE WORKERS REPAIRING THE ROOF DROVE STUDENTS AND TEACHERS "UP THE WALL." TEACHERS ENDED UP WITH LARYNGITIS TRYING TO TALK OVER THE GRINDING, GRATING, RUCKUS. THE NOISES SEEMED TO BE SO LOUD THAT WE "COULDN'T HEAR OURSELVES THINK." FINALLY, THE CONSTRUCTION CAME TO AN END AND WE THOUGHT WE COULD "GET ON WITH THE PROGRAM" OF LEARNING. UNFORTUNATELY, THE OLD BUILDING JUST DIDN'T HAVE IT IN HER AS SHE "BLEW HOT AND COLD" DEPENDING ON THE ROOM. (CONTINUED PG. 5)

FF TO FIND A COMFORT ZONE IN THE S. IN ADDITION, DURING FEBRUARY, WHEN THE SOLD ARCTIC WINDS "BLEW INTO TOWN," THE OLD BUILDING BUSTED ITS UNIDUCTS SPEWING WATER AND THE REMAINS OF CEILING TILES ALL OVER THE CAFETERIA AND SEVERAL CLASSROOMS. THE ANNOYING SOUND OF WATER DRIPPING INTO BUCKETS AND THE MILDEW SMELL THAT PERMEATED THE AIR GAVE THE CATCH PHRASE "DOWN AND DIRTY" A WHOLE NEW MEANING. DESPITE THE CONDITION OF THE BUILDING, STUDENTS AND TEACHERS "PUT THEIR BEST FOOT FORWARD," AND "PAVED THE ROAD TO SUCCESS." FOR EXAMPLE, NEW THEATER DIRECTOR, MR. KIT DEGENHART, DID A "DEVIL OF A JOB" DIRECTING HIS FIRST PLAY, "YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU," AND PROVED HE COULD INDEED "CARRY THE BALL." WHEN THE CPETTES AND CHEERLEADERS BOTH QUALIFIED FOR THE NATIONALS, THE CPETTES EN-JOYED "SOME FUN IN THE SUN" AT MGM STUDIOS, AND THE CHEERLEADERS SPENT THE LAST WEEK OF THEIR CHRISTMAS BREAK "IN THE SPOTLIGHT" IN NASHVILLE, IN ADDITION, SENIOR CHRIS CATALANO'S TENNESSEE. "MADE AN ALL OUT EFFORT" ON HIS SECOND TRIP TO THE STATE FINALS ACHIEVING AN 8TH PLACE FINISH AND FIVE STUDENTS "PLAYED THEIR WAY" TO THE ALL-STATE BAND! ALTHOUGH THE SCHOOL BUILDING ITSELF WASN'T EXACTLY "UP TO PAR," STUDENTS "MADE DO" WITH WHAT THEY HAD AND MANAGED TO LEARN THAT "YOU CAN'T TELL A BOOK BY ITS COVER."-DAN BAIDINGER

WE ALL COME TO THE POINT WHEN WE CATCH ON THAT THERE IS MORE TO SCHOOL THAN BOOKS AND WORK. SO, TO MAKE THINGS MORE INTERESTING, WE JAZZ UP OUR SOCIAL LIVES. WE FILL THE EXTRA TIME WITH DANCES, JOBS, CARS, FRIENDS, DATES, PARTIES, ETC.

HIGH SCHOOL IS A PLACE WHERE WE TRY TO GAIN AS MUCH FREEDOM AS WE CAN. IT IS WHERE WE DEVELOP OUR SENSE OF INDIVIDUALITY, WHERE WE GAIN RESPONSIBILITIES, AND WHERE WE MATURE INTO WHAT WE ARE TO BE.

REMEMBER LEARNING TO DRIVE AND WHAT HUGE STEP IT WAS? AND AS SOON AS YOU COULD DRIVE, YOU PROUDLY WENT OUT AND PICKED UP ALL OF YOUR FRIENDS IN YOUR BRAND SPANKIN' NEW USED CAR AND HAULED THEM TO SCHOOL. I BET EVEN THOUGH IT WAS AGAINST THE RULES, YOU STILL PARKED IN THE STUDENT LOT WITHOUT A PARKING PASS. WHAT A GREAT DAY! EVERYTHING SEEMED COOL UNTIL AFTER SCHOOL WHEN A LARGE NEON STICKER WAS STUCK TO YOUR CAR'S WINDSHIELD, OBSTRUCTING YOUR VIEW, AND CLASHING BADLY WITH THE COLOR OF YOUR PAINT. BUMMER FOR YOU. BUT, YOU LEARNED. (PARK ON THE SQUARE!)

AND REMEMBER WHEN YOU FINALLY GOT UP ENOUGH COURAGE TO ASK THAT SPECIAL SOMEOUT ON A DATE. IT WAS A REAL GROWTH EXPERIENCE WASN'T IT? YES, ACCEPTING REJEC-

TION IS A GOOD THING TO KNOW HOW TO DO. WELL, AT LEAST THEY DIDN'T ALL SAY NO. AFTER AWHILE YOU PERFECTED YOUR COME

ON, LEARNED A NEW PUT ASE OR TWO, AND FOUND SWEET SUCCESS WITH THE OPPOSITE SEX. HOWABOUT THAT RCA DOME GAME. FOR THOSE WHO WENT WITHOUT THEIR PARENTS, IT WAS PROBABLY ONE OF THE FIRST TIMES YOU GOT TO MAKE A WEEKEND TRIP LIKE THAT ALONE. VICTORY WAS SWEET AND SO WERE THE POST GAME CELEBRATIONS!

YES, HAVING MORE INDEPENDENCE AND RESPONSIBILITY WAS GREAT, AND IT BRIGHTENED YOUR SOCIAL LIFE; NO MORE PARENTS DRIVING YOU TO THE MOVIES, HANGING AROUND WITH YOU AT PARTIES, OR MAKING YOU COME HOME BY 10. UNFORTUNATELY, THERE STILL WAS THE C.P. POLICE TO ENFORCE THE CURFEW.-DAN BAIDINGER

SENIOR LEWIS LAIN, ALONG WITH JUNIORS KARA KIJEN, TIM CARBEN, AND STAN WASH ZIS-PLAY THEIR THEATRICAL TALENTS AS THEY PER-FORM IN THE FALL PLAY "YOU CAN'T TAKEIT WITH YOU." APROXIMATELY 650 PEOPLE ATTENZEZ THE PLAY IN ITS THREE VIEWINGS.

STUDENTS STROLLED AROUND THE HALLS WITH PAINTED FACES ON RED AND WHITE DAY.

SOME PAINTED HALF OF THEIR FACE IN RED AND THE OTHER HALF IN WHITE, WHILE A FEW WENT FOR THE ZEBRA LOOK, ALTERNATING THE TWO COLORS. RED AND WHITE DAY PROVED TO BE THE MOST POPULAR. OTHER DAYS INCLUDED DENIM DAY, TIE DAY, DISCO DAY, AND NERD DAY; HOWEVER, ONLY A FEW STUDENTS SEEMED TO ENJOY THOSE THEMES. "I DIDN'T THINK THAT THE DRESS UP DAYS WERE FUN.

WE SHOULD HAVE MORE INTERESTING THEMES LIKE 60'S DAY OR OTHER CRAZY STUFF, "SAID SOPHOMORE LAUREN KUNKLE. IN ADDITION TO THE TRADITION OF THE DRESS OF DAYS, EACH CLASS TRANSFORMED ITS ALLOTTED SPACE IN THE CAFETERIA WITH POSTERS AND RIBBONS, AND THE SOPHOMORES CAME AWAY WITH THE PRIZE FOR BEST DECORATED
WALL. ALSO, THE TRADITIONAL POWDER PUFF TEAMS TORE UP THE FOOTBALL FIELD AS THE SENIOR/FRESHMEN TEAM WON THE GAME 37-26. CONTINUING TO EXHIBIT THEIR CLASS SPIRIT, STUDENTS ATTERDED THE PER PALLY HELD DAY AFTERNOON WHERE THE CPETTS PERFORMED A ROUTINE TO A CHEERING CROWD AND ALSO SANG "THE SUPERBOWL SHUFFLE" TO THE FOOTBALL TEAM.

"It's always nice to win the big game because it's a spirit filled week and the fans are expecting a lot out of the players." -Senior Geremy Milner, #34

AFTER THE CHEERLEADERS PERFORMED, NICK SARNECKI AND MIKE MASSENDALE RAN OUT ON THE COURT, POM PONS IN HAND, AND IMITATED THE CHEERLEADERS, RECEIVING MUCH APPLAUSE. "THE PEP-PALLY WAS ACTUALLY PRETTY COOL THIS YEAR," SAID JUNIOR KATHLEEN HOVAN, "AND MY FRIENDS AND I HAD FUN AT THE GAME TOO."

PRIOR TO THE GAME, EACH CLASS EXHIBITED ITS ARTISTIC TALENT AS IT DISPLAYED THE FLOAT DESIGNED BY CLASS MEMBERS. AS IN THE SPIRIT WALL CONTEST, THE SOPHOMORES ONCE AGAIN DOMINATED. SOPHOMORE RYAN MORFIN SAID, "IT WAS AWESOME TO SEE OUR CLASS PULL TOGETHER TO WIN THE FLOAT AND THE SPIRIT WALL, BUT ALL THE FLOATS LOOKED GREAT."

THE STADIUM STANDS WERE FILLED TO CAPACITY AND THE SENIOR CLASS WAITED FOR THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE NAME OF THE HOMECOMING QUEEN. MEGAN DAVIDSON, KRISTIE KORZENIEWSKI, JEN TOERING, AND CAUDIA VELASCO, MADE UP THE COURT AND KRISTIE KORZENIEWSKI WON THE CROWN. KRISTY SAID, "ALL OF THE GIRLS LOCKED WONDERFUL AND IT WAS A SHAME THAT WE ALL COLUDN'T WIN. 'AS THE GAME WRAPPED UP, FANS WERE NOT DISAPPOINTED AS THE DOGS DEFEATED THE SLICERS 37 TO ZIP. JUNIOR TARA BOUSKA SAID, "ITHINK HOMECOMING IS GREAT BECAUSE ALMOST EVERYONE GETS INTO IT AND HAS A LOTOFFUN." CONNE GONZALES

WITH TINY, WHITE LIGHTS STRUNG ABOVE THE BAFTERS OF THE GYMNASIUM AND SUNS, CLOUDS, MOONS, AND STARS, THE AIR WAS FULL OF GLORY. GOOD-TIMES, LOVE, AND SORROW. HOMECOMING WAS A JOYOUS EVENT BUT IT WAS SHROUDED IN SADNESS WITH THE PASSING OF

SENIOR LINDSEY M. PARSONS AND THE HOSPITALIZATION OF NICLOE WERNES, THE NIGHT PRIOR TO THE DANCE. "IT WASN'T THE SAME WITHOUT HER AT THE DANCE, BUT IT BROUGHT MANY PEOPLE CLOSER TOGETHER," SAID SENIOR JAMIE WATERS. MINISTER LYNN RAGSDALE RECITED A SMALL PRAYER IN MEMORY OF LINDSEY, AND MANY STUDENTS BOWED THEIR HEADS FOR A MOMENT OF SILENCE. SENIOR DAVE WILLIAMS SAID, "IT

THE DANCE WAS SPONSORED BY THE BOOSTER CLUB WHICH TOOK APPROXIMATELY THREE MONTHS TO PREPARE FOR. PRESIDENT OF THE CLUB, MEGAN THOM SAID, "I WAS RELIEVED. IT LOOKED EXACTLY HOW IT PLANNED AND EVERYONE DID AN EXCELLENT JOB." THE THEME FOR THE EVENING WAS "SEARCHING FOR JUNIOR, ANDY MONOS SAID, "I THOUGHT THE THEME FIT GREAT BECAUSE SUNS AND STARS FIT INTO NG FOR GLORY'AND FIT IN WELL WITH THE CROWNING." TYPICAL HOMECOMING EVENTS WENT RIGHT ON SCHEDULE AS KRISTI KORZENIEWSKI WAS CROWNED QUEEN ON FRIDAY PRECEDING THE GAME. CHRIS CARNAHAN WAS CROWNED MR. FOOTBALL AT THE DANCE ON SATURDAY. AFTER BEING CROWNED CARNAHAN SAID, "I WAS HONORED TO BE ELECTED MR. FOOTBALL BECAUSE OF ALL THE OTHER GREAT ATHLETES ON THE TEAM THAT COULD HAVE BEEN PICKED INSTEAD OF ME.

MANY PEOPLE LEFT THE DANCE EARLY AND WENT TO DINNER OR SAT AROUND WITH FRIENDS. WHATEVER THE STYLE, STUDENTS FOUND THEIR OWN WAY TO EXPRESS THEMSELVES THROUGH FASHION. SOME WENT TO CHICAGO OR IN TO MERRILLVILLE. WHILE OTHERS ATTENDED AFTER THE DANCE PARTIES. SOPHOMORE ROB DADO SAID, "WE LEFT THE DANCE AROUND TEN, WENT TO DINNER, AND THEN WE ALL STAYED THE NIGHT AT A FRIENDS HOUSE TO WATCH MOVIES. IT WASN'T ALL THAT EXCITING, BUT WE WERE WITH OUR FRIENDS AND THAT WAS WHAT WE NEEDED AT THE TIME!"

MANY STUDENTS REPORTED THAT ALTHOUGH THEY HAD A GOOD TIME, IT WAS DIFFICULT TO GET INTO THE MOOD FOR CELEBRATING. A DARK CLOUD SEEMED TO HANG OVER THE ENTIRE EVENING AND STUDENTS JUST WERE NOT THEMSELVES. THE SAD REALITIES OF LIFE INTRUDED ON THE GOOD TIMES AND OVERALL, PEOPLE CAME TOGETHER TO SUPPORT ONE ANOTHER IN A TIME OF GREAT SADNESS. MOST PUT UP A BRAVE FRONT AS THEY TRIED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE FESTIVITIES, BUT SAID IT JUST DIDN'T SEEM LIKE HOMECOMING WITHOUT LINDSEY AND NICOLE TO SHARE IT WITH. - STACIE HARDER

DEGENHART MAKES DEBUT WITH FALL PERFORMANCE CHANGE CAN OFTEN BE FRIGHTENING, AND FOR MANY AT CPHS, THE CHANGING OF HANDS IN THE AUDITORIUM WAS

NO EXCEPTION. BEFORE HIS RETIREMENT, MR. MARION KELLUM HAD A REPUTATION FOR GREAT SHOWS. THEREFORE, WALKING INTO THE AUDITORIUM TO SEE YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU

LEFT EVERYONE FEELING A LITTLE APPREHENSIVE. HOWEVER, ACCORDING TO THE AUDIENCE, THERE WAS NO NEED FOR THE APPREHENSION. UPON TAKING A SEAT, THE THING THAT CAUGHT THE AUDIENCE'S ATTENTION WAS THE SET THAT STOOD LIT ON THE STAGE. " | LEARNED

MORE ABOUT SET CONSTRUCTION THAN I EVER WANTED TO! THE AUDIENCE SEEMED TO ENJOY THE FINISHED PRODUCT," SAID JUNIOR ANGELA MASON.

THE OPENING OF THE SHOW INTRODUCED SENIOR KERI ANNE GURA AS THE MATRON OF THE HOUSEHOLD, PENELOPE SYCAMORE. PENNY WAS A BUDDING PLAYWRIGHT EIGHT YEARS IN THE MAKING. SHE STARTED WRITING SIMPLY BECAUSE A TYPEWRITER WAS DELIVERED TO HER HOUSE BY MISTAKE.

PENNY'S DAUGHTER ESSIE, AN ASPIRING CANDY-MAKER AND DANCER, WAS PLAYED BY JUNIOR KARA KLEIN. ESSIE HAS ABSOLUTELY NO FUTURE IN THE WORLD OF DANCE, AND KLEIN MADE THIS GLARINGLY APPARENT. HER COMIC DANCE MOVES KEPT THE AUDIENCE IN STITCHES FROM HER ENTRANCE ON. ALTHOUGH CONTINUOUSLY HUMOROUS, KLEIN WAS PARTICULARLY ADEPT AT MAKING HER MOVES ADD TO THE SCENE WITHOUT STEALING IT. "THE FUNNIEST PEOPLE OF THE PLAY WERE KARA KLIEN AND STAN WASH," SAID MEG REISTER.

JUNIOR STAN WASH PORTRAYED ESSIE'S HUSBAND, ED. WASH CRASHED ONTO THE SCENE (LITERALLY) AND PROCEEDED TO STEAL THE WHOLE SHOW. ED WAS A CLUMSY FOOL, BUT DESPITE HIS CHARACTER'S DUBIOUS IQ, WASH'S EXPRESSIONS AND PRATFALLS WERE VERY INTELLIGENT INDEED.

JUNIOR MIKE SHERRON PLAYED ESSIE'S RUSSIAN-BORN BALLET INSTRUCTOR. HIS ACCENT AND ACTIONS WERE DEFINITELY VERY EUROPEAN AND CAREFULLY STUDIED. ALL OF HIS WORK PAID OFF WHEN IT WAS COMBINED WITH HIS ACTING TALENT AND INNATE COMIC SENSE, PROVIDING FOR MANY GOOD LAUGHS ALONG THE WAY. "I'VE BEEN IN A LOT OF SHOWS, BUT NONE OF THE OTHERS CAME THROUGH IN THE END QUITE LIKE THIS ONE DID," SAID JUNIOR MIKE SHERRON. THE MORAL BACKBONE OF THE PIECE WAS PROVIDED BY SENIOR LEWIS LAIN'S MARTIN VANDERHOF. HIS VERY CONVINCING PORTRAYAL OF AN AGING GRANDFATHER, WHOSE CAREER, OR LACK THEREOF, ILLUSTRATED THE MESSAGE OF YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU. HE WOULDN'T ALLOW HIS SON (PLAYED BY JUNIOR LUKE STENGER) TO MARRY VANDERHOF'S GRANDDAUGHTER, ALICE. KIRBY WAS PLAYED BY SENIOR JAMES HENEGHAN, AND ALICE WAS PLAYED BY JUNIOR HEATHER HOLLIDAY, "I ENJOYED BEING IN THE PLAY VERY MUCH. I FEEL IT WAS A VERY SUCCESSFUL PLAY, BUT I'D HAVE TO SAY THAT MY FAVORITE PART ABOUT YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU WAS KISSING HEATHER HOLIDAY OVER AND OVER," SAID LUKE STENGER. -TINA WEITBROCK

"It was a fun experience playing the drunk, even though I was passed out on the couch most of the time. The whole play was great and so was Mr. Dagenhart." Senior Bridget Homrich nvolved in a forbidden love affair, juniors Heather Holiday and Luke Stenger gaze into each other's eyes during the play You Can't Take It With You. The couple's parents in the play disapproved of their relationship.

Junior Sanya Holevis, has a solemn yet distinctive look about her. She made her own fashion statements and stood out as an individual.

unior Brooke
Austgen displays
her newest tattoo to junior Sarah LaDow.
Choosing the tattoo was the best part of the experience for Brooke.

Justing in the English lab, junior Melinda Henke chooses the preppy-trendy look with a button-up shirt and a sweater vest. This was a popular look among the sophomore class.

inishing a plaster art project, senior Brian Ashbaugh wears metal-spiked and leather jewelry. Brian said wearing a tough look was his way of expressing his individual personality.

RETRO MOVEMENT SENDS FASHION TRENDS BACK TO '70'S

"THE LONG LOOK WAS IN FOR SO LONG THAT I WANTED TO DO SOMETHING DIFFERENT WITH

W ALKING DOWN THE HALLS, ONE COULD SEE MANY OF THE CURRENT FASHION TRENDS. ONE OF THE MOST OBVIOUS WAS THE LAYERED-SHAG HAIRCUT. THIS HAIRCUT WAS SPORTED BY MANY MUSIC, MOVIE, AND TELEVISION CELEBRITIES. HOWEVER, THE POPULAR SIT COM "FRIENDS" HAD BEEN THE BIGGEST PROMOTER OF THE SHAG. JUNIOR ERICA PEREGRINE SAID.

MY HAIR. I FIRST SAW THIS STYLE ON T.V. AND LIKED IT, PLUS IT MAKES ME LOOK OLDER." ANOTHER LARGE TREND INCLUDED CARRYING BACKPACKS. THESE WERE SPORTED IN A WIDE VARIETY OF SIZES AND STYLES INCLUDING CLEAR PLASTIC AND VINYL, LEATHER AND PATENT LEATHER. AND EVEN IN THE SHAPE OF TEDDY BEARS. HOWEVER, THE MOST POPULAR WAS LARGE AND CANVAS IN A VARIETY OF COLORS, OFTEN DECORATED WITH PATCHES, PINS, KEYCHAINS, AND MAGIC MARKER, SOPHOMORE BRIAN BAILITZ HAD A CREATIVELY DESIGNED BACKPACK, "I JUST WANTED TO BE DIFFERENT AT FIRST, AND THEN PEOPLE STARTED BRINGING PINS, PATCHES, AND BUTTONS, SO | PUT THEM ON AND BECAME BUTTON BOY."

PLATFORM SHOES, TOO, HAD TRAVELED BACK FROM THE '70'S. WITH A LARGE STACKED HEEL, THESE SHOES CAME AS PENNY LOAFERS. SNEAKERS, AND BOOTS, AND RANGED ANY WHERE FROM SUEDE TO LEATHER TO VINYL. JUNIOR BETH NOLAN OWNED A PAIR OF THE

HIGH-HEELED PENNY LOAFERS. "I LIKE THESE SHOES BECAUSE THEY MAKE MY LEGS LOOK LONGER AND THINNER. AND THEY GO WITH ALMOST ANYTHING!" ANOTHER FOOT FAD WAS THE INCREASED POPULARITY OF ALTERNATIVE AND SOCCER SHOES. BRANDS SUCH AS ADIDAS, AIRWALK, PUMA, CONVERSE, AND VANS WERE VERY COMMON AMONG ALL TYPES OF STUDENTS. THESE WERE OFTEN PAIRED WITH JEANS THAT WERE FRAYED ALONG THE BOTTOM OR SLIT UP THE SIDE HEM TO FALL FREELY AROUND THE ANKLE OF THE SHOE. FRESHMAN ADD SINCHAI WORE AIRWALKS. "I JUST LIKE THESE SHOES BECAUSE THEY'RE COMFORTABLE TO SKATE (BOARD) IN," HE SAID.

DESPITE ALL OF THESE WONDERFUL TRENDS, MANY PROVED THAT TRENDY WASN'T EVERYTHING, AND IT WAS TRENDY NOT TO BE TRENDY. TATTOOS AND BODY PIERCINGS WERE GROWING AMONG THE STUDENT POPULATION, AS WERE BRIGHT HAIR COLORS LIKE FLUORESCENT GREEN, BLUE AND HOT PINK. CHAIN WALLETS, STEEL SPIKE NECKLACES AND BRACELETS, AND DR. MARTEN'S BOOTS COULD BE SEEN THROUGHOUT THE HALLS. SENIOR BRIAN ASHBAUGH SAID, "I DRESS THE WAY LOO BECAUSE LUKE IT AND THE GIBLS DO TOO. LOAN WEAR WEAPONS IN SCHOOL AND GET AWAY WITH IT. WHATEVER THE STYLE, STUDENTS FOUND THEIR OWN WAY TO EXPRESS THEMSELVES THROUGH FASHION. SOME CHOSE TO ATTRACT ATTENTION, WHILE OTHERS PREFERRED TO BLEND INTO THE CROWD." - SARAH LADOW & KARLA CONDRON.

"I like this cut because it is easy to take care of and it's different to." - Larrissa Shamesenior David Willimas the opponent. He said, "The best thing about the game was tackling Mario Staff from Merrillville over and over again."

S enior David Warne completes the pass at the 35-yard line during the pre-season game against Merrilliville. Fortunately for the team, David decided to play football instead of tennis.

rying to save the ball, senior David Warne tries to escape his opponent's tackle. David said, "Throughout all high school, we wanted to beat Merrilliville. Doing it in the RCA Dome in Indianaplis was something I'll remember for a very long time."

AN INVITATION TO THE DOME WAS USUALLY RESERVED FOR PRO BALL TEAMS; HOWEVER, MANY OF THE HIGH SCHOOL VARSITY TEAM'S MEMBERS REPORTED THAT PLAYING

Students enjoy football weekend at Indianapolis RCA Dome THERE SURE FELT LIKE PRO BALL. THE RCA DOME, LOCATED IN DOWNTOWN INDIANAPOLIS, HOUSED THE FOOTBALL SEASON OPENER. THE VARSITY TEAM BATTLED AGAINST THE MERRILLVILLE HIGH SCHOOL PIRATES ON AN EVENING IN SEPTEMBER. THIS WAS THE SECOND GAME OF A NEW TRADITION IN INDIANA, IN WHICH EVERY FIVE YEARS, NUMEROUS TEAMS FROM NORTHWEST INDIANA ARE INVITED TO PLAY AT THE HOME OF THE INDIANAPOLIS COLTS FOOTBALL TEAM.

FAN BUSES AND CARAVANS OF CARS LOADED WITH PARENTS, TEACHERS, AND STUDENTS FROM BOTH SCHOOLS SPED DOWN 1-65 IN ORDER TO MAKE THE 2 1/2 HOUR JOURNEY. HONKING HORNS AND DECORATED VEHICLES IN BOTH RED AND PURPLE INDICATED THE EXCITEMENT TO COME. "WHEN WE SAW A CAR FROM MERRILLVILLE WITH ITS PURPLE STREAMERS, WE MADE SURE THEY KNEW WE WERE FROM CROWN POINT," SAID JUNIOR DAN BAIDINGER.

THE STUDENTS AND PLAYERS WEREN'T THE ONLY ONES THAT FOUND THE WHOLE AFFAIR EXCITING. ONE OF THE COACHES FOUND IT TO BE SPECIAL AS WELL. "IT WAS A SPECIAL OCCASION FOR ME BECAUSE I HAD PLAYED IN THE FIRST REGIONAL CLASSIC HELD AT THE DOME AS A SENIOR IN HIGH SCHOOL, AND IT WAS THE PLACE OF MY DEBUT AS A FOOTBALL COACH," SAID FIRST YEAR COACH CHAD BUSH. THE GAME BEGAN WITH CROWN POINT BULLDOGS KICKING OFF TO THE PIRATES. MERRILLVILLE SCORED IMMEDIATELY WHICH GRABBED

THE DOGS' ATTENTION, AND THE BATTLE BEGAN. THE FIRST HALF ENDED IN A SCORE OF 10-7 CROWN POINT. THE SECOND HALF WAS A NEVER ENDING BATTLE, IN WHICH NO POINTS WERE SCORED. CROWN POINT ENDED UP BREAKING A SCHOOL RECORD, WITH THE MOST YARDAGE AND FEWEST POINTS WITHIN ONE GAME. "IT FELT LIKE WE WON THE SUPER BOWL! WE WORKED REALLY HARD TO ACHIEVE OUR GOAL, TO BEAT MERRILLVILLE, AND IT ALL PAID OFF," SAID SENIOR ED JEWETT.

ONCE THE GAME WAS OVER, A FEW PEOPLE RETURNED RIGHT AWAY TO NORTHERN INDIANA. HOWEVER, MOST OF THE FANS STAYED ALL NIGHT IN INDIANAPOLIS TO CELEBRATE THE VICTORY. THE WEEKEND PROVIDED TIME FOR A QUICK GET AWAY FOR MANY COMMUNITY MEMBERS. THERE WERE A VARIETY OF ACTIVITIES TO ATTEND. THE MOST POPULAR OF WHICH WAS ATTENDING THE OTHER ACTIVITIES IN THE DOME AND VISITING LOCAL RESTURANTS. THE NIGHT ACTIVITIES CONSISTED MOSTLY OF FRIENDS CELEBRATING WITH FRIENDS IN THE LOCAL HOTELS. "AT FIRST WAS RELUCTANT TO GO DOWN FOR THE GAME, BUT IT TURNED OUT TO BE A BLAST WITH MY FRIENDS AND AN INTERESTING WAY TO START MY SENIOR YEAR," SAID SENIOR MEGAN DAVIDSON.

"Playing where the Colts play and beating one of our big rivals made it something I will never forget" - senior Geremy Milner he Bulldogs' team celebrates its victory after defeating the Merrillville Pirates at the season opener held at the RCA Dome in Indianapolis The Pirates had been a long time rival for the team.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT CONVIENIENT WAY TO EARN MONEY WHAT DO YOU THINK, THAT MONEY GROWS ON TREES?" STUDENTS HAD ALL HEARD THEIR PARENTS SAY IT A HUNDRED TIMES, BUT NOW FOR THE FIRST TIME, STUDENTS WERE HAVING TO FIGURE IT OUT FOR THEMSELVES. SENIOR BECKY VANDENBURGH REALIZED THIS SHORTLY AFTER SHE GOT HER FIRST JOB. "WHEN I WAS YOUNGER. TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THE FACT THAT MY PARENTS BOUGHT THE NECESSITIES, BUT MANY STUDENTS LOOKED FOR JOBS AS AN ANSWER TO THE NEVER ENDING SEARCH FOR MONEY, BUT ALONG WITH THE CASH CAME MANY UNWANTED RESPONSIBILITIES. JUGGLING SCHOOL WORK. FRIENDS, EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, AND JOBS PROVED TO BE A DIFFICULT TASK FOR MANY STUDENTS

AS THEY LEARNED THAT ORGANIZATION WAS MANDATORY WHEN TIME WAS SCARCE. "I HAVE TWO JOBS PLUS

SCHOOL, AND SOMETIMES IT'S HARD TO GET ENOUGH SLEEP AND GET ALL OF MY HOMEWORK DONE. BUT I LIKE MY JOBS A LOT, AND ALMOST ALL OF THE MONEY I EARN GOES IN THE BANK FOR COLLEGE," SAID JUNIOR KELLY GRANGER. MANY STUDENTS LOOKED FOR JOBS TO GAIN EXPERIENCE IN DEALING WITH RESPONSIBILITY. ALONG WITH RESPONSIBILITY. LUNCH, CAR PAYMENTS AND INSURANCE, ENTERTAINMENT, AND EXTRA SPENDING CASH WERE JUST SOME OF THE MAIN REASONS STUDENTS SEARCHED FOR EMPLOYMENT. JUNIOR TARA BOUSKA SAID, "I HAVE A JOB BECAUSE I WANT TO BUY MYSELF A CAR AND THEN PAY FOR THE INSURANCE, AND ALSO I DON'T WANT TO BE DEPENDENT ON MY PARENTS FOR EVERYTHING ANY MORE. I'M HOPING TO LEARN ABOUT RESPONSIBILITY AND GAIN INDEPENDENCE OUT OF THIS SITUATION.

THE MAJORITY OF AVAILABLE JOBS FOR TEENAGERS INCLUDED WORKING AT FAST FOOD RESTAURANTS LIKE McDonalds, Dairy Queen, and Burger King, or if STUDENTS WERE LUCKY ENOUGH, THEY LANDED A JOB AT ONE OF THE FASHIONABLE RETAIL STORES IN THE MALL. NOT ONLY DID THOSE JOBS OFFER AN INCOME, BUT THE DISCOUNTS ON PRODUCTS PROVIDED ANOTHER INCENTIVE. ONE PROBLEM EXISTED HOWEVER: SOME EMPLOYEES SEEMED TO SPEND ALL THEIR MONEY ON MERCHANDISE. ESPECIALLY IF IT WAS A CLOTHING STORE OR MUSIC STORE, BEFORE THEY EVEN RECEIVED THEIR CHECK.

FOR THOSE STUDENTS WHO DIDN'T HAVE THE TIME OR THE TRANSPORTATION TO WORK OUTSIDE OF THEIR OWN HOME, DOING CHORES AROUND THE HOUSE OR YARD, OR WORKING FOR A FAMILY OWNED BUSINESS WAS AN EASY ALTERNATIVE. SOPHOMORE BROOKE HOMBICH TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THIS SITUATION WHEN SHE COULD. "WHENEVER I NEED A FEW EXTRA BUCKS, I JUST DO SOME EXTRA CHORES AROUND THE HOUSE AND MY PARENTS USUALLY GIVE MY WHATEVER I NEED."

NO MATTER WHY STUDENTS HELD JOBS, MOST FOUND THE EXPERIENCE TO BE REWARDING, AND WHETHER STUDENTS WORKED TO SPEND OR TO SAVE MONEY, THEY FOUND THAT EARNING IT WAS AN IMPORTANT PART OF GROWING UP. -SARAH LADOW

"Whenever I need a few extra bucks, I just do some extra chores around the house and my parents usually give me what I need." -Sophomore Brooke Homrich unior Kelly Fauth wipes off the counter while waiting for customers at Shoop's Hamburgers in town. Kelly worked in order to save money for her own car.

unior Nicole Anderson listens intently as friends talk about their evening plans while eating at Al's Diner in Merrilliville. Restaurants were a favorite place to hang outbecause of the relaxed environment.

Juniors Joan Feder and Sarah LaDow and senior Stacie Harder relax in an empty fountain at the Pavilion in Kansas City. The girls traveled together to attend a jounalism con-

STUDENTS FIND TIME TO JUST HANG OUT WITH THEIR FRIENDS WHEN ASKED WHAT THEY DID IN THEIR SPARE TIME, MOST STUDENTS WOULD HAVE GENERALLY CALLED "HANGING OUT", CAPTURED A BIG PART OF ANY TEENAGER'S LIFE. SENIOR JULIE CORRIGAN COULD ATTEST TO THAT. SHE SAID, "I JUST LIKED TO STAY AT FRIEND'S HOUSES

OR NOT DOING CHORES. SOPHOMORE SARA ARMSTRONG BEST DESCRIBED IT WHEN SHE SAID,

"HANGING OUT WAS WHEN YOU CHOSE TO SPEND EXTRA TIME WITH PEOPLE YOU LIKED, WHETHER IT WAS YOUR FAMILY, A LOT OF GOOD FRIENDS, OR YOUR BOYFRIEND, AND CHERISH THE TIME YOU HAD WITH THEM."

STUDENTS HUNG OUT AT A VARIETY OF PLACES, THOUGH MOST OFTEN AT FRIEND'S HOUSES, RESTAURANTS, DRIVING AROUND IN THE CAR, OR THE MALL. WHAT THEY DID ALL DEPENDED ON WHERE THEY WERE. SOPHOMORE JENNIFER SANDERS SAID, "WE DIDN'T HANG OUT ANYWHERE IN PARTICULAR, JUST WHEREVER MY FRIENDS AND | DECIDED TO GO THAT NIGHT. | LIKED BEING WITH THEM BECAUSE WE COULD HAVE FUN ANYWHERE IN JUST ABOUT ANY SITUATION."

IN ADDITION TO TIME SPENT WITH FRIENDS, STUDENTS SPENT TIME AT HOME WITH THEIR FAMILIES AS WELL. WHILE THERE, THEY COULD BE THEMSELVES AND ENJOY THE COMPANY OF THEIR PARENTS AND SIBLINGS. JUNIOR ANGELA MASON WAS ONE OF THESE STUDENTS. SHE SAID, "MY FAMILY WAS VERY CLOSE. MY MOM WAS MY BEST FRIEND! IN A COUPLE OF YEARS, I'D BE AWAY AT COLLEGE AND I WOULDN'T BE AROUND THEM. I WANTED TO SPEND TIME WITH THEM WHILE I COULD. WE ALWAYS HAD A GOOD TIME, LOTS OF LAUGHS, AND USUALLY A FEW SURPRISES." ALTHOUGH TEENAGERS TRIED TO HAVE AS MUCH LEISURE TIME AS POSSIBLE, MANY

THINGS OFTEN GOT IN THE WAY OF HANGING OUT; TRANSPORTATION, HOMEWORK, JOBS, AND PARENT'S RULES NAMED JUST A FEW. BIGGER PROBLEMS, SUCH AS FRIENDS WHO DIDN'T GET ALONG, WERE FREQUENT ALSO. SOPHOMORE BETH BEIKER HAD THIS PROBLEM. "IF ONE FRIEND DID NOT LIKE ANOTHER PERSON, THEN THEY WOULD TALK ABOUT THEM EVEN IF YOU WERE FRIENDS WITH THEM. OR IF TWO GIRLS LIKED THE SAME GUY, THEN THEY ALWAYS TRIED TO OUT DO EACH OTHER."

MONEY WAS A BIG PART OF HANGING OUT TOO. UNLESS YOU WERE JUST HANGING AT A FRIENDS HOUSE, VIRTUALLY EVERYTHING COST MONEY. FOR STUDENTS WHO HUNG OUT AT THE MALL, THIS WAS A BIG PROBLEM. SOPHOMORE CHRIS BLOW HAD TO BE CAREFUL WITH HIS MONEY, "I ALWAYS SPENT MY MONEY, SOMETIMES, IF I WAS OUT AT THE MALL OR SOME PLACE LIKE THAT, I MIGHT GET CLOTHES OR FOOD, BUT USUALLY I SPENT IT ALL ON CD'S OR SOMETHING ELSE THAT HAD TO DO WITH MUSIC. I NEEDED TO BE CAREFUL WITH THE CASH FLOW." NO MATTER WHAT EACH CALLED IT, RELAXING, HANGING OUT. OR JUST "CHILLING" TOOK UP A MAJOR PART OF ANY STUDENT'S LIFE. -SARAH LADOW

SCHOOL AUTHORITIES CRACK DOWN ON PARKING ISSUES PARKING HAS BEEN A GROWING PROBLEM FOR SEVERAL YEARS. WITH AN INCREASING AMOUNT OF STUDENTS EACH YEAR, FEWER AND FEWER STUDENTS WERE PERMITTED TO DRIVE TO SCHOOL, STUDENTS FEARED THAT SOON

NOT BEING ABLE TO FIND A PARKING PLACE, ONLY SENIORS BEING ABLE TO DRIVE TO SCHOOL, AND NOT BEING ABLE TO DRIVE OFF CAMPUS FOR LUNCH, WERE THE MAJOR CONTROVERSIES FACED CONCERNING TRANSPORTATION. THE MAJORITY OF THE STUDENT BODY FELT THE SCHOOL'S ADMINISTRATION SHOULD FIND A WAY TO CREATE MORE PARKING PLACES. SENIOR SUSAN CHABES SAID, "I THINK BEFORE THEY START DOING LITTLE THINGS TO THE SCHOOL, LIKE PUTTING A NEW FLOOR

DOWNSTAIRS, THEY SHOULD START WORKING ON MAKING MORE PARKING PLACES SO NO ONE WILL BE COMPLAINING." HAVING A SIMILAR OPINION, SOPHOMORE BRIAN PARKER SAID, "IF THEY DECIDED NOT TO BUILD THAT NEW BUS GARAGE, MAYBE THEY COULD CONCENTRATE MORE ON PROBLEMS AT OUR HIGH SCHOOL SINCE WE CAN'T HAVE A NEW SCHOOL."

IT WAS OBVIOUS THAT THE CONTROVERSY THAT EXISTED TWO YEARS AGO OVER THE PROPOSED NEW SCHOOL HAD NOT YET DIED. STUDENTS OBVIOUSLY STILL HAD BITTER FEELINGS TOWARD THE SCHOOL BOARD AND THE COMMUNITY THAT VOTED THEM INTO OFFICE. "ALTHOUGH THE PLAN TO BUILD A NEW SCHOOL DIED, WE STILL NEEDED ONE. THE NEW BUILDING WOULD HAVE PROVIDED PLENTY OF PARKING TOO. OBVIOUSLY THE COMMUNITY DIDN'T CARE ABOUT OUR NEEDS THEN AND THEY DON'T NOW," SAID JUNIOR NEETHU

SINCE ONLY SENIORS COULD DRIVE, MANY PROBLEMS AROSE FOR BOTH SOPHOMORES AND JUNIORS WHO HAD PRACTICE AND MEETINGS AFTER SCHOOL, NOT TO MENTION JOBS. JUNIOR ANDY MARKWARD SAID, "IT WAS UNFAIR TO THE UNDERCLASSMEN LIKE ME WHO HAD JOBS TO GO TO AFTER SCHOOL AND ALSO TO THE PEOPLE THAT HAD SPORTS AND NO WAY HOME." ON THE OTHER HAND, SENIOR STEVE KELLEY SAID, "SINCE THERE WERE ONLY SO MANY PARKING SPACES, I THINK IT WAS FAIR THAT ONLY SENIORS GOT TO DRIVE, BUT SOME EXCEPTIONS SHOULD HAVE BEEN MADE FOR ATHLETES AND THOSE WITH JOBS." STUDENTS WITHOUT PARKING STICKERS WOULD FIND A BIG GREEN STICKER ON THEIR CAR WARNING THEM THAT NEXT TIME, THE CAR WOULD BE TOWED. SOME STUDENTS CHOSE TO IGNORE THE STICKERS ONLY TO FIND A MISSING CAR AFTER SCHOOL.

ALTHOUGH STUDENTS HAD NOT BEEN PERMITTED TO DRIVE DURING LUNCH FOR MANY YEARS, THE RULE WAS NEVER ENFORCED UNTIL THE NEW SECURITY GUARDS CAME ON THE SCENE. THEIR CARS LITERALLY BLOCKED SOME OF THE EXITS. ALSO. IF A STUDENT DID MANAGE TO ESCAPE, PLATE NUMBERS WERE COLLECTED AND TURNED INTO THE OFFICE. THOSE CAR OWNERS AND ACCOMPANYING FRIENDS RECEIVED SUSPENSION NOTICES. SOPHOMORE JEN ROGALSKI SAID, "I THINK IF STUDENTS WERE ARLE TO DRIVE TO SCHOOL, THEN THEY SHOULD HAVE BEEN ABLE TO DRIVE OUT TO LUNCH. THIS WOULD HAVE HELPED ELIMINATE THE CROWDED LUNCHROOM AND LUNCHLINES." -MELANIE McGOLDRICK

COMBINED ALL THESE ELEMENTS. THROW IN THE THESPIANS,

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MR. KIT DEGENHART, AND YOU'VE GOT

YOURSELF A GREAT SHOW, AS THEY AMPLY PROVED ON MARCH 15TH, 16TH,

AND 17TH. HOW TO SUCCEED IS THE STORY OF A WINDOW WASHER, J. PIERPONT

FINCH (PLAYED BY JUNIOR LUKE STENGER), AND HIS RISE TO THE TOP OF THE CORPORATE

LADDER BY POLLOWING THE SIMPLE INSTRUCTIONS OF A BOOK CALLED, "HOW TO SUCCEED

IN BUSINESS WITHOUT REALLY TRYING." HIS MUSIC-FILLED RISE WAS ACCOMPANIED, OF COURSE,

BY SEVERAL FORTUMATE COINCIDENCES (WHAT IS A MUSICAL WITHOUT A STRING OF FORTUMATE COINCIDENCES?), BUT BY THE END OF THE PLAY, HE HAD SOMEHOW GAINED THE STATUS OF CHAIRMAN OF

THE BOARD, HAVING STARTED IN THE MALIROOM. STENGER'S PORTRAYAL OF FINCH WAS EXCELLENT. HIS

SINGINGS WAS ABOUT AS GOOD AS IT GETS DURING A LIVE PERFORMANCE, RARLEY GOING OFF KEY. THE MOST

REMARKABLE ASPECT OF HIS PERFORMANCE WAS UNDOUBTEDLY HIS FACIAL EXPRESSIONS. THIS CHARACTER PULLED SO

MANY SCHEMES DURING THE COURSE OF THE SHOW THAT WITHOUT GOOD FACIAL EXPRESSIONS, MICH OF THE PLAY WOULD

HAVE BEEN DEAD. ONE OF STENGER'S PLAYS TO THE AUDIENCE, PROPERTY PLACED, COULD CAUSE SPONTANEOUS LAUGHTER.

ANOTHER STANDOUT PERFORMANCE WAS GIVEN BY JUNIOR STAN WASH WITH HIS PORTRAYAL OF BUD FRUMP, THE BOSS' NEPHEW.

FRUMP WAS JEALOUS OF THE RESPECTABLE POSITION THAT FINCH HAD CAPTURED. HE CONSTANTLY PLOTTED AGAINST FINCH, WHO

FANTASTIC FACIAL EXPRESSIONS AS WELL AS GREAT EXPRESSION WHILE SINGING. LEADING TO A VERY CREDIBLE AND ENTERTAINING CHARACTER. AMONG THE BEST CHARACTERS WAS THAT OF HEDY, PLAYED BY FRESHMAN JENNIFER SKIDMORE. HEDY WAS AN INCREDIBLY DITZY COBANA GIRL TURNED SECRETARY. WITH EVERY GESTURE AND LOOK, SKIDMORE WAS PERFECTLY BUBBLE-HEADED. JUNIOR ANGELA MASON'S PORTRAYAL OF FINCH'S LOVE INTEREST (ANOTHER STANDARD MUSICAL REQUIREMENT), ROSEMARY, WAS VERY BELIEVABLE. ROSEMARY PULLED SCHEMES OF HER OWN IN HER QUEST TO GET FINCH TO FALL IN LOVE WITH HER. LEADING TO SEVERAL GREAT MUSICAL NUMBERS. THE CHOREOGRAPHY BY MRS. NANCY BOCEK, 1995 CPHS GRAD MARIA ARIZZI, STAN WASH, SENIOR BROOKE BRUMBRAUGH, AND SOPHOMORE BETH JESSEN WAS FANTASTIC. THERE WAS NOT A MEDIOCRE DANCE ROUTINE IN THIS PLAY, WHEN ONE FINDS HIM OR HERSELF WATCHING A MUSICAL NUMBER WITH GREAT SINGERS AND MEDIOCRE DANCING, ONE STARTS FALLING ASLEEP VERY QUICKLY. THIS WAS NOT A FACTOR HERE. THESE DANCE ROUTINES WERE DEFINITELY A CREDIT TO THE PLAY. ALL IN ALL, THIS WAS A GREAT MUSICAL, OF WHICH EVERYONE INVOLVED COULD BE PROUD, AND WAS ONE OF A LONG LINE OF REMARKABLE MUSICALS AT CPHS. -TINA WEITBROCK

PEOPLE, THE WEATHER, AND JUST ABOUT ANY OTHER HASSLE ONE MUST FACE DUBING EVERYDAY LIFE. MANY STUDENTS WENT OUT OF STATE FOR SPRING BREAK. FLORIDA WAS BY FAR THE MOST POPULAR PLACE TRAVELED TO ON BREAK. SENIOR T.J. SIEKER SAID, "IN FLORIDA THERE IS ALWAYS SOMETHING TO DO SUCH AS GOING TO THE BEACH OR JUST PARTYING. THE WEATHER IS GREAT AND THE PEOPLE THERE ARE VERY

MEXICO AND COLORADO WERE ALSO POPULAR PLACES. THOSE WHO TRAVELED TO MEXICO FOUND THE WEATHER TO BE EXTREMELY HOT AND EVERYDAY LIFE TO BE DIFFERENT. SOPHOMORE ANGIE KUCIK SAID, "MEXICO WAS FUN AND VERY BEAUTIFUL. PEOPLE THERE WERE FRIENDLY AND SEEMED VERY HAPPY DESPITE THE FACT THEY WERE POOR AND DIDN'T HAVE MUCH."

WHILE THE MAJORITY OF STUDENTS WENT AWAY TO WARMER PLACES, OTHERS WENT TO PLACES WITH COLDER WEATHER SUCH AS SENIOR CHRIS VENTURA AND BOB VENTURIN, WHO WENT TO COLORADO WHERE IT WAS SNOWING. STUDENTS WENT ON TRIPS FOR THE WEATHER, TO VISIT FAMILY OR FRIENDS, TO FISH, SKI, SWIM, TO CHECK OUT A COLLEGE CAMPUS, TO RELAX, OR TO GET RID OF THE SKIN PALENESS BROUGHT UPON BY THE LONG WINTER. SOPHOMORE ERIN WEBER SAID, "MOST OF THE TIME WHILE I WAS IN MEXICO, I SHOPPED BECAUSE EVERYTHING THERE WAS SO CHEAP COMPARED TO HERE." SOME STUDENTS DIDN'T GET TO GO ANYWHERE, BUT WISHED THEY COULD GO PLACES LIKE MEXICO, JAMAICA, COLORADO, ITALY, CALIFORNIA, AUSTRALIA, HAWAII, OR LAS VEGAS. JUNIOR SHAUNDRA HYRE SAID, "I WOULD LIKE TO GO TO LOS MOCHES, MEXICO TO VISIT MY FRIEND KATE SEALSCOTT WHO IS THERE AS AN EXCHANGE STUDENT. KATE SAID IT IS FUN DOWN THERE BECAUSE EVERY NIGHT YOU CAN GO TO THE DISCOS AND THE WEATHER IS ALSO NICE MOST OF THE TIME." A FEW STUDENTS HOPED TO SEE RATHER ODD PLACES LIKE THE MOON. JUNIOR BILL CRITSER SAID, "I THINK I'D LIKE TO TAKE A VACATION TO THE MOON BECAUSE SPACE TRAVEL SEEMS FUN AND I'D BE REALLY FAR AWAY FROM SCHOOL." SOPHOMORE PAUL WIRTZ SAID." STAYED HOME ON SPRING BREAK, BUT EVEN THOUGH THE WEATHER WAS BAD, I STILL GOT TO RELAX AND HAVE FUN." TRAVELING WITH FRIENDS WAS THE MOST POPULAR WAY TO GO. ALTHOUGH SOME STUDENTS WERE STUCK GOING WITH THEIR FAMILIES, IT SURE BEAT STAYING HOME IN THE COLD

RELATIONSHIPS MAKE STUDENTS, LIVES INTERESTING DATING TRADITIONS HAD NOT CHANGED ALL THAT MUCH OVER THE YEARS, ALTHOUGH GIRLS WERE MORE INDEPENDENT THAN IN PREVIOUS YEARS, GUYS STILL USUALLY DID THE ASKING, DROVE THE CAR, AND PAID THE BILL. "HE LIKES TO DRIVE BECAUSE HE GETS NERVOUS WITH ME BEHIND THE WHEEL." SAID JUNIOR LISA ROUSE. SENIOR MEGAN DAVID BELIEVED

THAT THE PERSON WHO INITIATED THE DATE SHOULD PAY THE TAB. SHE SAID IN HER INKLINGS COLUMN, SHE SAID, "A MAN SHOULD PAY FOR HIS DATES... WOMEN, IF ASKED TO DINE WITH SOME SMOOTHED OUT, STRAPIN' YOUNG GENTLEMAN, SHOULD NOT EXPECT TO PICK UP THE TAB." JUNIOR MIKE SHARON, THE HE SAID COLUMNIST FOR THE INKLINGS DIDN'T FEEL THAT WOMEN SHOULD EVER GO OUT ON A DATE EXPECTING THE GUY TO PAY. HE SAID, "THE GUY SHOULD NOT FEEL OBLIGATED TO PAY. THE TWO SHOULD GO DUTCH OR TAKE TURNS PAYING NO MATTER WHO ASKED WHOM." THE BATTLE OF THE SEXES

DATING PLAYED A MAJOR ROLE IN HIGH SCHOOL. STUDENTS HAD A VARIETY OF THINGS TO DO ON DATES INCLUDING SEEING A MOVIE, EATING OUT, TAKING A DRIVE TO CHICAGO, ATTENDING CONCERTS OR PARTIES OR JUST SITTING AT HOME WATCHING T.V. "WE LIKE TO GO SEE MOVIES AND TGI FRIDAY'S IS OUR FAVORITE RESTAURANT," SAID SENIOR JEN GOLEC. JUNIOR KRISTIN KNUTSON SAID, "SOMETIMES IT'S FUN TO JUST RENT A MOVIE AND RELAX TOGETHER."

FUNDS FOR DATING WAS A BIG PROBLEM. STUDENTS WHO HAD JOBS REPORTED HAVING MORE MONEY TO SPEND ON DATES, BUT LESS TIME TO DO IT. OTHER STUDENTS HAD THE DESIRE TO DATE, BUT NOT THE FINANCES OR THE TRANSPORTATION. AND OF COURSE, A FEW

WERE JUST TOO YOUNG, ACCORDING TO PARENTS. THEREFORE, MANY WERE FORCED TO SEE THAT SPECIAL SOMEONE ONLY AT SCHOOL. ANDY ROSDIL, A FRESHMAN SAID, "WE WALK DOWN THE HALLS HOLDING HANDS AND WE HAVE THREE CLASSES TOGETHER IN WHICH WE TALK ALL HOUR."

PARENTS COMPLICATED THINGS BY SETTING CURFEWS AND DEMANDING AN ITINERARY, SENIOR DERRICK CLINTON SAID, "I HATE HAVING A CURFEW, BUT IT DOESN'T STOP ME FROM GOING WHERE I WANT. ALSO MY PARENTS LOVE MY GIBLERIEND SO THEY DON'T CARE IF WE DATE." PARENTS SOMETIMES LET THEIR KIDS STAY HOME IF THERE WAS NOTHING ELSE TO DO. SOME PARENTS HOWEVER, WOULD NOT ALLOW THEIR KID AND HIS OR HER DATE TO STAY HOME WITHOUT SUPERVISION.

ALTHOUGH DATING FOR THE MOST PART TOOK PLACE IN THE TRADITIONAL MANNER, FEWER STUDENTS FOUND THEMSELVES STUCK AT HOME JUST BECAUSE THEY DIDN'T HAVE A DATE. STUDENTS OFTEN WENT IN GROUPS TO DANCES, MOVIES, CONCERTS, AND RESTAURANTS. SOME STUDENTS EVEN ATTENDED PROM IN GROUPS RATHER THAN WITH JUST ONE PERSON, " IT WAS MORE COMFORTABLE TO GO TO THINGS IN GROUPS THAN WITH SOMEONE YOU DIDN'T KNOW VERY WELL. IT MADE IT EASIER TO GET TO KNOW PEOPLE TOO," SAID SOPHOMORE MELANIE

ON THE INTERNET STUDENTS TALKED TO PEOPLE ALL OVER THE WORLD, EXPLORED OTHER PEOPLE'S WEB PAGES, AND READ ABOUT HAPPENINGS ALL OVER THE WORLD. SOPHOMORE BRIAN CONNELY SAID, "I TALK TO PEOPLE ON IRC (INTERNET RELAY CHAT), CHANGE MY WEB PAGE, AND GET

PROGRAMS AND FILES." OTHER STUDENTS LOOKED INTO ALL SORTS OF WEB SITES. IT WAS POSSIBLE TO PURCHASE MUSIC, BOOKS, EVEN CLOTHING OVER THE INTERNET AND ACCESS WAS NOT

AS EXPENSIVE AS OTHER FORMS OF ENTERTAINMENT. FOR ONLY ABOUT TWENTY DOLLARS A MONTH, STUDENTS COULD HAVE UNLIMITED ACCESS. ANOTHER NEW WAY OF COMMUNICATION WAS E-MAIL. E-MAIL WAS JUST LIKE SENDING A LETTER EXCEPT BY COMPUTERS. "I E-MAIL PEOPLE WHO HAVE GRADUATED AND GONE OFF TO COLLEGE. IT'S A LOT OF FUN AND IT'S CHEAPER THAN A PHONE CALL,' SAID SENIOR TINA WIETBROCK.

ALSO, THE BUSINESS DEPARTMENT PROVIDED INTERNET ACCESS FOR STUDENTS. THEY EVEN HAD THEIR OWN BULLETIN BOARD ACCESS. SEVERAL STUDENTS JOINED BBS, THE ON-LINE CLUB, SPONSORED BY MRS. DIANE BEARD. SENIOR CHRIS COSTAKIS SAID, "I DIDN'T HAVE A WHOLE LOT OF TIME TO DEVOTE TO THE HIGH SCHOOL'S BBS THIS YEAR DUE TO A NEW JOB | HAVE WORKING WITH THE INTERNET. THE TEAM DID A GOOD JOB OF HELPING EVERYONE OUT TO GET EVERYTHING DONE THAT NEEDED TO BE DONE."

VIDEO AND COMPUTER GAMES HAD ALWAYS BEEN POPULAR WITH STUDENTS, BUT WITH ALL THE NEW GAMES AVAILABLE AND THE NEW TECHNOLOGY, THEIR POPULARITY INCREASED. VIDEO GAMES COULD BE PLAYED AT ARCADES, ON THE TELEVISION SCREEN, OR ON THE COMPUTER. WITH THE NEW NETWORK TECHNOLOGY, STUDENTS COULD HOOK SEVERAL COMPUTERS UP TO ONE GAME AND PLAY EACH OTHER. DOOM WAS A VERY POPULAR GAME FOR THIS ENTERPRISE. "DOOM'S A GREAT GAME TO PLAY AGAINST A FRIEND OR BY YOURSELF, IT'S VERY CHALLENGING AND IT HELPS GET OUT STORED UP ANGER." SAID JUNIOR MIKE SHERRON.

WHEN NOT PLAYING AT HOME ON THE NET, OR SUPERNINTENDO, STUDENTS FLOCKED TO THE NEAREST ARCADES LOCATED IN THE SOUTHLAKE MALL. FUN THOUGH. STUDENTS FOUND MANY DIFFERENT THINGS TO DO AFTER THE DANCE INCLUDING HAVING A LATE DINNER, DRIVING UP TO CHICAGO, ATTENDING A PARTY WITH FRIENDS, OR JUST GOING HOME FOR PIZZA AND A RENTED VIDEO. NO MATTER WHAT THEY DID, IT USUALLY MADE THE NIGHT A LITTLE MORE SPECIAL. SENIOR RICK SCHULTZ REPORTED HAVING A MIGHTY ADVENTUROUS NIGHT. "MY GIRLFRIEND

JUNIOR MELISSA KRAMMER THOUGHT THAT SPECIAL SOMEONE REALLY MADE THE NIGHT SPECIAL. SHE SAID, "I HAD A BLAST THAT NIGHT. I LOVED MY BOYFRIEND, AND HE MADE THE NIGHT ALL THAT MORE SPECIAL AND FUN." HOWEVER, JUNIOR DAN BAIDINGER BELIEVED A SWEETHEART WAS NOT THE NEEDED INGREDIENT FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE EVENING...JUST A GOOD FRIEND. "THE NIGHT WAS MORE RELAXED BECAUSE I DIDN'T HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT IMPRESSING MY FRIEND." OVERALL THE NIGHT SEEMED TO BE A SUCCESS. NEW MEMORIES WERE MADE AS WELL AS NEW RELATIONSHIPS. JUNIOR JOAN FEDER, WHO WORKED AT HER FAMILIES FLOWER SHOP, SAID, "I ENJOYED WORKING AT THE FAMILY BUSINESS BECAUSE | GOT TO SEE THE RELATIVES THAT I WOULDN'T HAVE SEEN VERY OFTEN OTHERWISE. IT ALSO HELPED MY FAMILY, AND I LEARNED A LOT."

SHOULD KIDS GET PAID FOR HELPING OUT THEIR PARENTS? THAT WAS THE BIG OUESTION. STUDENTS HAD DIFFERENT OPINIONS ON THE SUBJECT. SOME THOUGHT THEY SHOULD OFFER HELP BECAUSE THEY WERE PART OF THE FAMILY. OTHERS, HOWEVER, REPORTED THAT THEY WOULD NOT LIFT A FINGER UNLESS SOME MONEY CHANGED HANDS. SOPHOMORE BOBBY PETERSON SAID, "UNLESS I GET MONEY, THE JOB DOESN'T GET DONE,"

EVERYONE HAD DIFFERENT FAMILY RESPONSIBILITIES THROUGHOUT HIGH SCHOOL. WHETHER IT WAS BATHING THE DOG, WORKING OUTSIDE THE HOME, OR JUST TAKING OUT THE TRASH. DECORATIONS WERE ELABORATELY STREWN ABOUT, RELATING TO THE THEME, "HOLD ON TO THE NIGHT". THIRTEEN FOOT LAVENDER AND WHITE CASTLES WERE PLACED IN THE CORNERS ALONG WITH CLEAR, LAVENDER, AND WHITE BALLOONS DRAPING FROM THE CEILING AND ARCHING AROUND THE DOORS. EACH OF THE TABLES, WHICH SEATED TEN PEOPLE, HAD CENTERPIECES OF FLOATING CANDLES AND NAME PLACES FOR EACH PERSON. REFRESHMENTS

OF CUPCAKES, COOKIES, POP, AND PUNCH WERE SERVED IN THE LOBBY. PICTURES WERE ALSO TAKEN BY SPASOFF PHOTOGRAPHY IN THE LOBBY WITH A CHOICE OF TWO DIFFERENT BACKGROUNDS. THE EVENING BEGAN WITH MANY COUPLES GETTING THEIR PICTURE TAKEN OR MINGLING IN THE BALLROOM WITH THEIR FRIENDS.

AT 7:00 DINNER WAS PRECEDED BY A PRAYER AND WAS SERVED FAMILY STYLE. THE MEAL INCLUDED CHICKEN, MOSTACHOLI, CORN, RICE, HAM, MASHED POTATOES, SALAD, BREAD AND FROZEN YOGURT. SENIOR TIM MURRAY SAID, "THE FOOD WAS OKAY, NOTHING REALLY GREAT. I THOUGHT THE YOGURT IN THE PLASTIC CUPS WAS PRETTY CLASSY."

AFTER DINNER, THE D.J. PUMPED OUT ALL THE SONGS OF THE OLDIES, ROCK AND ROLL AND R&B. SOME STUDENTS COMMENTED ON THE SPACE AVAILABLE ON THE DANCE FLOOR. "I BARELY HAD ANY ROOM, AND I WAS LUCKY IF I COULD FIND A PIECE OF DANCE FLOOR

TO DANCE ON," SAID SENIOR JOHN BUCKLEY. HOWEVER, THERE WERE STUDENTS WHO FELT THAT THE NUMBER OF PEOPLE DID NOT BOTHER THEM. SENIOR DEBBIE RIVERA EXPLAINED, "MY DATE AND I HAD A GREAT TIME. HE WAS A LITTLE SHY WITH DANCING, SO THE EXTRA PEOPLE OUT ON THE DANCE FLOOR MADE IT MORE COMFORTABLE FOR THE BOTH OF US."

THE NIGHT CONTINUED WITH A CORONATION CEREMONY HONORING THE PROM KING AND QUEEN CANDIDATES. THE NOMINEES FOR KING INCLUDED JASON ANDERSON, LARRY HAGERMAN, ED JEWETT, AND DAVE WARNE. THE QUEEN CANDIDATES WERE MEGAN DAVIDSON, MANDY LAMERE, JEN TOERING, AND CLAUDIA VELASCO. AFTER A BRIEF INTRODUCTION OF THE STUDENTS, JEN TOERING AND JASON ANDERSON WERE CROWNED THE SPECIAL HONOR AND THEY DANCED TOGETHER IN THEIR MOMENT OF GLORY.

MANY STUDENTS AGREED THAT THIS WAS AN EVENING THEY WOULD NEVER FORGET. "I HAD THE BEST TIME OF MY LIFE. EVERYTHING TURNED OUT THE WAY IT WAS PLANNED. I JUST HAD SO MUCH FUN BEING WITH MY FRIENDS ON SUCH A SPECIAL NIGHT," SAID SENIOR CARRIE KOSIK.-SARAH ROOT AND SARAH LADOW

"I had a really great time. I picked the right guy to go with - that's probably what made it fun. The decorations were pretty spiffy, too." - Junior Jenn Bell

COMING TO THE SCHOOL DAY IN AND DAY OUT, SEEING THE SAME FACES, AND ATTENDING THE SAME CLASSES EVERY DAY, TENDED TO BECOME REPETITIVE AND BORING. WHY DID WE COME TO SCHOOL IN THE FIRST PLACE? TO GET AN EDUCATION? TO PLAY SPORTS? TO CALL OUT OR A GIRL'S EYE? OR PERHAPS, WE CAME TO GET INVOLVED IN THE ORGANIZATION OF OUR CHOICE? WE ALL HAD "CROSS PURPOSES" AND SO DID THOSE 35 AVAILABLE CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS. FROM LETTERMEN'S, TO BAND AND CHOIR, THERE WAS SOMETHING OF INTEREST FOR EVERYONE. SCHOOL WOULD HAVE BEEN A REAL DRAG WITHOUT A CLUB OR GROUP TO HANG OUT WITH. IT WAS THE CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS THAT BROUGHT US TOGETHER.

FOR SOME STUDENTS, THE PURSUIT OF BRINGING HAPPINESS TO OTHERS BROUGHT THEM TO CLUBS INVOLVED IN COMMUNITY WORK. FOR EXAMPLE, KEY CLUB AND THE FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES WENT CAROLING OVER THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS AT RETIREMENT COMMUNITY AND DESPITE THEIR SLIGHTLY OFF KEY CAROLS, THE ELDERLY SEEMED TO ENJOY IT. IN ADDITION, STUDENT COUNCIL HELD A BLOOD DRIVE, AND HERO COLLECTED CLOTHES AND FOOD FOR THE POOR. IF COMMUNITY SERVICE WASN'T A STUDENT'S STYLE, THEN LOTS OF OTHER CHOICES WERE AVAILABLE. DRAMA CLUB ATTRACTED THOSE WHO LIKED TO ACT OR CRAYED THE ATTENTION OF AN ADORING AUDIENCE. WHEN THE GROUP PERFORMED YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU IN THE FALL, THE AUDIENCE WAS INDEED ADORING. SOME AUDIENCE MEMBERS STOOD ON THEIR CHAIRS SCREAM-

ING "BRAVO!" OF COURSE THE EVER POPULAR FOREIGN LANGUAGE
CLUBS OFFERED GREAT ENTICEMENTS... TRIPS OVERSEAS,
FIESTAS, PIZZA PARTIES!!! IN ADDTION, THE FORIEGN
LANGUAGE FAIR BROUGHT A LOT OF LAUGHS TO MEMBERS.
THERE WERE EVEN ORGANIZATIONS AVAILABLE FOR THOSE INTO SELF-IMPOSED PUNISHMENT, YEARBOOK AND NEWSPAPER. (WORK, DEADLINES, PRESSURE, MORE DEADLINES, MORE PRESSURE.) HOWEVER, THE FIELD TRIPS TO FRANKLIN COLLEGE, KANSAS CITY, PURDUE CALUMENT. AND BALL STATE, MADE IT WORTHWHILE.

TO THE ASE IT ALL UP, WE MAY HAVE HAD CROSS PURPOSES, BUT DESPITE WHAT CLUB WE JOINED, WE DID HAVE ONE THING IN COMMON, WE WANTED TO BELONG TO SOMETHING.

PARTICIPATING IN THE Homecommg PA-RADE, JUN-JOR KELLY GRANGER, SOPHO-MORES MATALIE HUDZLESTON ANZ ELIZA-BETH WILTSHIRE, SENIOR RICK SCHMELTZ, AND SOPHO-MORE JENNI-FER PERON RIDE ON THE FOREIGN LANGUAGE FLOAT. MAKING THE FLOAT WAS THE CLUB'S FIRST ACTIVITY.

NXIOUSLY AWAITING THE END OF THE SCHOOL YEAR, MOST STUDENTS HAD BEACH ON THE BRAIN. TWELVE SENIORS WERE THINKING OTHERWISE. THEY HAD BEEN ANTICIPATING THE ANNUAL BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE CONVENTION AT INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY.

THE END OF SCHOOL SIGNIFIED AN EXTENDED WEEKEND IN UNFAMILIAR TERRITORY. SEVEN BOYS AND FIVE GIRLS COMMITTED THEMSELVES TO ESTABLISHING A SIMULATED GOVERNMENT AT THE CONVENTION. ALEX RASMUSSEN, BILL WIRTZ. PETE

BOONJAREN, LEW LAIN, RYAN COLLIER, LARRY HAGERMAN AND DAVE HIGGINS WERE SELECTED TO SERVE AS DELEGATES FOR BOYS' STATE. BRENNA HAGBERG, JEN ELDER, VANESSA ROSENBAUM, AND JEN TOERING ATTENDED GIRLS' STATE.

EVERY REPRESENTATIVE CAMPAIGNED FOR AN OFFICE AT THE STATE, COUNTY, OR CITY LEVEL. JEN ELDER WON COUNTY CORONER. HER CAMPAIGN THEME WAS, "II WANT YOUR BODY." LEW LAIN SAID, "IT WAS AN INTERESTING EXPERIENCE AND IT OFFERED A LOT MORE THAN WHAT I HAD EXPECTED."

THE DELEGATES GOT A TASTE OF COLLEGE LIFE BY STAYING IN THE DORMS AT THE UNIVERSITY. THEY ATTENDED MANY WORKSHOPS TO LEARN MORE ABOUT GOVERNMENT AND HOW IT OPERATED. BRENNA HAGBERG WAS ON THE CITY COUNCIL. SHE SAID, "FOR BEING SOMEWHAT SKEPTICAL ABOUT GIRLS' STATE, I REALLY HAD A GREAT EXPERIENCE. I LEARNED ABOUT THE GOVERNMENT AND MET SOME REALLY GREAT FRIENDS. I WOULD RECOMMEND IT FOR ANY JUNIOR THINKING ABOUT ATTENDING."

MRS. VANCE SAID, "THE STUDENTS WERE SELECTED BY A PANEL OF TEACHERS. WE LOOKED FOR A GOOD GPA, AN INTEREST IN GOVERNMENT, AND THEY HAD TO BE ABLE TO PRESENT THEMSELVES AND THEIR IDEAS. WE ASKED OURSELVES IF THEY WOULD POSITIVELY REPRESENT

CROWN POINT HIGH SCHOOL." - KRISTIN KNUTSON

AFTER THE BUSINESS MEETING, THE MEMBERS WENT INTO THE SHOP AND WORKED ON THEIR CARS. SENIOR RICK SCHULTZ SAID, "I THINK THE CLUB WAS GREAT. THE AUTO CLUB SPONSORED AN AUTO SHOW IN APRIL TO RAISE MONEY. THE SHOW FEATURED MANY OLD AND NEW CARS AND TRUCKS BELONGING TO THE STUDENTS AND PEOPLE FROM THE COMMUNITY. THE CARS WERE DIVIDED INTO MANY DIFFERENT CLASSES BASED ON THEIR AGE AND SPECIAL FEATURES. STUDENTS IN THE CLUB JUDGED SEVEN CATEGORIES: BEST PAINT JOB, BEST ORIGINAL OR RESTORED PRE-1949 CAR, BEST ORIGINAL OR RESTORED 1949-95 CAR, BEST CUSTOM VEHICLE, BEST

HE WON "BEST STREET MACHINE CLASS, 1949 TO 1995," WITH HIS '57 CHEVY BEL-AIR. DESPITE THE RAIN, THE SHOW WAS A GREAT SUCCESS ACCORDING TO MR. SICKLES. THE PRICE OF ADMISSION EARINED THE CLUB AN SSTIMATED $600. THEY USED THE MONEY TO PURCHASE TOOLS NEEDED FOR NEXT YEAR.

CHOOL SPIRIT COULD BE SHOWN IN ANY WAY, SHAPE, OR FORM. SOMETIMES IT WAS EASY-LIKE CHEERING AT A FOOTBALL GAME; OTHER TIMES, IT COULD BE WORK, WORK, AND MORE WORK ACCORD-ING TO COLORGUARD MEMBERS.

COLORGUARD INCORPORATED SKILL, AGILITY, AND COORDINATION. KELLY GRAMENZ SAID, "I TRIED OUT

BECAUSE WHEN I WAS YOUNGER, I WOULD WATCH THE PERFOR-MANCES AND I WOULD WANT TO BE DOING IT." DURING TRYOUTS, COLORGUARD HOPEFULS HAD TO LEARN THE BASICS DAILY. NEXT, THEY LEARNED A ROUTINE THAT THEY WOULD HAVE TO PERFORM IN FRONT OF JUDGES AND GRADUATING GUARD CAPTAINS. THE FINAL TRYOUTS WERE HELD WITH TWO PEOPLE IN A ROOM AT A TIME.

ONCE A STUDENT MADE THE TEAM, THEY SPENT MOST OF THEIR EXTRA TIME PRACTICING BETWEEN THREE AND SIX DAYS A WEEK. "WE WOULD PRACTICE OUR ROUTINES, AND THEN PRACTICE THEM WITH THE BAND UNTIL WE GOT IT RIGHT," SAID SOPHOMORE KELLY GRAMENZ. NUMEROUS PRACTICES WERE REQUIRED BECAUSE GETTING THE BAND AND COLORGUARD COORDINATED WAS NO EASY TASK, JUNIOR ANDREA REPASKY SAID, "LEARNING WHERE TO GO IS DIFFICULT, BUT ONCE YOU HAVE DONE IT THIRTY OR FORTY TIMES, YOU GET THE HANG OF IT."

THE COLORGUARD TRAVELED WITH THE BAND TO COMPETITIONS. "AT FIRST IT SEEMED STRESSFUL, BUT IT EVENTUALLY, TURNED INTO A FUN THING," SAID SENIOR SARAH BESCH. THE ENTIRE ROYAL REGIMENT, OF WHICH THE GUARD IS A PART, WON A DIVISION 1 BATING AT THE REGIONALS WITH THEIR "STAR WARS" ROUTINE.

EACH SONG INCLUDED A CHANGE IN FLAGS AND OTHER MATERIALS TO SET THE MOOD. IN THE THIRD SONG, "NEBULA" A BATTLE SCENE, SOME OF THE MEMBERS USED IMITATION SWORDS AND RECREATED A BATTLE.

SHE HAD TO GO THROUGH HER WHOLE ROUTINE LIKE THAT," SAID JUNIOR SARAH KLEIN. "THAT KIND OF SUMS UP THE COURAGE AND DEDICATION OF OUR GROUP." KRISTIN KNUTSON

EMBERS OF THE ORCHESTRA SPENT THEIR SPRING VACATION IN THE FLAMING SUN OF ORLANDO, FLORIDA WHERE THEY PERFORMED FOR A DISNEY WORLD CROWD. DISNEY WORLD SELECTED THE STATE RANKED GROUP AFTER HEARING A SAMPLE OF ITS PERFORMANCES ON AUDIO AND VIDEO TAPES AND AFTER REVIEWING ITS CREDENTIALS.

BEFORE LEAVING, THE GROUP PRACTICED EVERY MONDAY NIGHT. THEY ALSO HELD EXTRA PRACTICES AND A CONCERT BEFORE LEAVING. THEN ALL 60 MUSICIANS PACKED IN BUSES, AND HEADED OUT FOR THE 23 HOUR JOURNEY. ON THE WAY, THEY WATCHED MOVIES, SLEPT, AND TALKED WITH FRIENDS. JUNIOR RACHEL LANIGAN SAID, "WE WATCHED SO MANY MOVIES, IT WAS LIKE HAVING A SLEEPOVER WITH 60 PEOPLE."

OYAL REGIMENT HAD A TIGHT SCHEDULE AFTER CAMP TECUMSEH IN AUGUST. DAILY PRACTICES AND DEDICATION RESULTED IN A SUPERB FINISH IN THE REGIONAL AT ELKHART CENTRAL HIGH AND STANDING OVATIONS DURING THEIR HALFTIME PERFORMANCES AT FOOTBALL GAMES.

THE REGIONAL INCLUDED A COMPETITION COMPOSED OF BANDS FROM THE NORTHERN PART OF THE STATE. THE ROYAL REGIMENT RECEIVED A DIVISION 1 RATING, THE SECOND IN THE BANDS HISTORY, " I THINK IT WAS A GREAT EXPERIENCE AND I'M GLAD I GOT TO DO IT. WE KNOW THAT ALL THE WORK HAD PAID OFF AT THE END WHEN WE FINISHED. WE WERE ABLE TO SAY "Wow, WE DID IT," SAID SOPHOMORE STEPHANIE ZIC.

SCORING WAS BASED UPON HOW WELL THE GROUP DID IN GENERAL EFFECT, MUSIC, AND MARCHING, GENERAL EFFECT WAS BROKEN DOWN INTO TWO PARTS, VISUAL AND MUSIC. IF THE COMPOSER'S THEME WAS EXCITING AND FAST, THE ROUTINE WAS CHOREOGRAPHED TO MATCH THE SPEED ACCORDING TO THE BAND DIRECTOR MRS. PEGGY SCHAFFER. THE ROYAL REGIMENT'S THEME WAS BASED ON STAR TREK. THEY CHOSE FOUR SONGS INCLUDING "LIFE IS A DREAM, "LLIAH'S THEME," "RETURN OF NEBULA" AND "HOME Again." Each of the songs varied in tempo from slow to FAST, WHICH MADE THE ROUTINES SO UNIQUE. WHEN EACH SONG ENDED, THE PROPS CHANGED. DURING THE SONG "RETURN OF NEBULA," A BATTLE SCENE, SOME OF THE MEMBERS USED IMITATION SWORDS TO RECREATE THE BATTLE. COORDINATING THE BAND WITH THE COLORGUARD WAS A DIFFICULT TASK ACCORDING TO MRS. SCHAFFER. EACH GROUP MET AND PRACTICED AT DIFFERENT TIMES; THEREFORE, THERE WAS A LOT OF MISCOMMUNICATION.

VER THE SUMMER FROM JULY 4 TO JULY 18, THE FRENCH CLUB TRAVELED OVERSEAS TO ENGLAND. FRANCE, SWITZERLAND, AND ITALY. THE GROUP. CONSISTING OF AUBREY KUCHAR, BRENNA HAGBERG, KEN NAULT, JASON SPRY, ANGELA WHITECELL, TABBY SMITH, AND JENNIFER PANULI, MET WITH OTHER HIGH SCHOOL TOUR GROUPS FROM CALIFORNIA, KENTUCKY, AND THE BAHAMAS.

THE TRIP COST AROUND $2300. MRS. CHARY

AND MRS. HAGBERG WERE THE CHAPERONING ADULTS. THE PLANE RIDE TOOK THE GROUP ABOUT 8 OR 9 HOURS. SENIOR TABBY SMITH SAID, "THE RIDE WAS FUN AND CALM. WE GOT TO WATCH TWO MOVIES INCLUDING OUT BREAK AND JURY DUTY." MOST OF THE GROUP SAID THE FOOD THE WAS JUST "ALL RIGHT". THE GROUP SAID THAT THE ONLY COUNTRY THAT HAD UNUSUAL OR EXOTIC FOODS WAS FRANCE. IT HAD A WHAT THE FRENCH CONSIDERED A DELICACY, RAW MEAT. "IT WAS NOT SOMETHING WE THOUGHT OF AS A DELICACY," SAID TABBY, "WE COULD HAVE IT EVERY DAY AT HOME IF WE WANTED TO, BUT WHO WOULD?"

THE GROUP HAD A CHANCE TO WALK AROUND AND SEE ALL THE SIGHTS INCLUDING THE COLISEUM IN ROME, THE CASTLES IN LONDON, THE MOUNTAINS IN SWITZERLAND, AND THE ISLAND OF CAPRI. JUNIOR KEN NAULT BELIEVED THE LENIENT ATTITUDES OF THE FRENCH WERE A PLUS. HE SAID, "IT WAS GREAT TO KNOW THAT WE WERE ABLE TO DO MOST ANYTHING EVEN THOUGH WE WERE NOT 21 YEARS OLD. THE FRENCH SPEAKING COUNTRIES ALLOWED TERNAGERS A LOT MORE FREEDOM THAN HERE IN THE UNITED STATES." SENIOR BRENNA HAGBERG THOUGHT THE TRIP WAS A TERRIFIC EXPERIENCE. SHE SAID, "IT WAS DEFINITELY A WORTH

ITH A CHANGING OF THE GUARD, NEW TEACHER JEREMY WALKER TOOK ON THE CHALLENGES OF SPONSORING THE LATIN CLUB. THESE RESPONSIBILITIES WERE TAKEN OVER FROM FORMER 31 YEAR VETERAN EDUCATOR, MRS. RUTH KERNAGIS WHO RETIRED AT THE END OF LAST YEAR. "I KNEW COMING IN THAT I WOULD HAVE A HUGE PAIR OF SHOES TO FILL, AND I REALLY HOPED THAT THE KIDS WOULD EVENTUALLY ADJUST TO ME, AND I THINK BY THE END OF THE YEAR THEY WERE MORE COMFORTABLE WITH ME AND MY TEACHING STYLE, "SAID MR, WALKER.

WITH ITS 102 MEMBERS, THE CLUB WAS THE 3RD LARGEST ONE IN THE STATE. IT WAS PART OF A LARGER STATE ORGANIZATION CALLED THE INDIANA JUNIOR

CLASSICAL LEAGUE. MEMBERSHIP IN THIS GROUP ALLOWED STUDENTS TO ATTEND A STATE CONVENTION AT INDIANA UNIVERSITY IN THE SPRING OF EACH YEAR. AT THE STATE CONVENTION HELD IN APRIL, JUNIOR MATT AMES WAS ELECTED STATE PRESIDENT. HE SAID, "I HAD TO CAMPAIGN FOR THE OFFICE FOR SOME TIME BEFORE THE CONVENTION, BUT WHEN THE VOTING FINALLY TOOK PLACE AND MY NAME WAS ANNOUNCED, IT MADE ALL THE HARD WORK WORTH WHILE. I WILL ALSO RUN NEXT YEAR'S STATE CONVENTION AND HAVE A LARGE PART IN THE NATIONAL CONVENTION BEING HELD OVER THE SUMMER AT INDIANA UNIVERSITY."

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION WAS HELD IN A DIFFERENT STATE EVERY SUMMER. SENIOR CORINE JURGERSON SAID, "I WENT TO NATIONAL CONVENTION IN TENNESSEE MY SOPHOMORE YEAR, AND I HAD ONE OF THE GREATEST TIMES OF MY LIFE. I CAN'T WAIT TO GO THIS SUMMER WHEN IT'S HERE IN INDIANA. I'M SURE IT WILL BE SOMETHING I WILL NEVER PORFER!"

THE LATIN CLUB HELD ITS ANNUAL ROMAN BANQUET IN MAY COMPLETE WITH ALL STUDENTS IN FULL. ROMAN ATTIRE. THE FIRST YEAR STUDENTS SERVED FOOD AND ACTED AS PERSONAL SLAVES FOR THE SENIORS. IT WAS A TRADITION THAT THE GRADUATING SENIORS RECEIVE FOUR YELLOW ROSES SYMBOLIZING THEIR FOUR YEARS OF DEDICATION TO THE STUDY OF LATIN. SINCE THE SENIORS HAD MRS. KERNAGIS FOR THREE YEARS, SHE ATTENDED THE BANQUET TO GIVE THREE ROSES TO THE SENIORS AND MR. WALKER DISTRIBUTED ONE ROSE TO EACH OF THE GRADUATES. -CINDY

HE FIRST ISSUE HIT THE STANDS AT THE END OF SEPTEMBER AND PRESENTED A WHOLE NEW LOOK. THE "INKLINGS" NEWSPAPER INCREASED ITS SIZE FROM 8 TO 12 PAGES, IMPLEMENTED A LARGER ENTERTAINMENT SECTION, AND FEATURED A CENTER SPREAD HIGHLIGHTING MAJOR EVENTS WITH PHOTOS. "PEOPLE REALLY REACTED WELL TO THE FIRST ADDI-TION. WE SOLD COMPLETELY OUT OF IT," SAID SENIOR DAVID VRABEL, CO-EDITOR-IN-CHIEF.

SINCE THE FIRST ADDITION WAS SO SUCCESSFUL, THE STAFF DECIDED TO CONTINUE WITH THE DESIGN AND COVERAGE. THEY ALSO THOUGHT COMING OUT MORE OFTEN WOULD HELP THE STUDENT BODY STAY UP TO DATE.

SENIOR TINA WIETBROCK, CO-EDITOR-IN-CHIEF SAID. "IT ORIGI-NALLY STARTED AS A NECESSITY DUE TO SCHEDULING, BUT WITH THE COMPETENT STAFF WE HAD, WE DECIDED TO KEEP THE THREE WEEK SCHEDULE.

THE PAPER WAS NOT ONLY SUCCESSFUL WITH THE STUDENT BODY, BUT WITH PROFESSIONAL JUDGING ORGANIZATIONS AS WELL. THE PAPER WON A FIRST PLACE WITH SPECIAL DISTINCTION FROM THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION, A THIRD PLACE IN THE TIMES "BEST HIGH SCHOOL NEWSPAPER OF THE YEAR AWARD, AND AN 'A' RATING FROM QUILL AND SCROLL. TINA WIETBROCK ALSO WON SEVERAL INDIVIDUAL WRITING AWARDS. "THE STUDENTS WORK SO HARD, AND ITS WONDERFUL THAT THEY RECEIVE SOME RECOGNI-TION," SAID MRS. RHONDA OVERBEEKE, "INKLINGS" ADVISOR.

THE BIGGEST CHALLENGE FOR THE SELF-SUPPORTING NEWSPA-PER WAS STAYING IN THE "BLACK," ACCORDING TO SENIOR JIM

NOLAND, MANAGING EDITOR. HE SAID, "OUR PRINTER WENT OUT OF BUSINESS AND THE NEW ONE WAS MORE EXPENSIVE. OUR MONTHLY COST WENT UP ABOUT $150. HOWEVER, THE STAFF PULLED TOGETHER TO RAISE MORE MONEY THROUGH SELLING ADS."

THE STAFF ALSO SPENT MUCH OF THEIR TIME WORKING ON IMPROVING THEIR PUBLICATION.

THEY ATTENDED SEVERAL WORKSHOPS. "WE LEARNED SO MUCH FROM ATTENDING THE CLASSES TAUGHT BY PROFESSIONAL JOURNALISTS," SAID JUNIOR MATT REGASHUS, ASSISTANT EDITOR.

STAFFERS REPORTED THAT BEING A PART OF THE STAFF WAS A TERRIFIC EXPERIENCE. ENJOYED EVERYTHING ABOUT IT. I LOVED THE CHARGED ATMOSPHERE, THE PRESSURES OF DEADLINES, AND THE TEAM SPIRIT," SAID SENIOR JEN MORGAN. - JOE ZARAGOZA

EARBOOK STAFF MEMBERS HAD MUCH TO BE PROUD OF WITH THE NUMEROUS STATE AND NATIONAL AWARDS THEY RECEIVED. IN THE FALL, THE GROUP TRAVELED TO FRANKLIN COLLEGE TO ATTEND THE STATE HIGH SCHOOL JOURNALISM CONVENTION. WHILE ATTENDING THE AWARDS CEREMONY, THE STAFF RECEIVED SEVEN STATE HARVEY AWARDS FOR THE 1995 EXCALIBUR. "I COULDN'T BELIEVE IT," SAID EDITOR-IN-CHIEF DAN BAIDINGER, "THEY JUST KEPT CALLING OUT OUR SCHOOL'S NAME."

IN ADDITION, THE BOOK ALSO RECEIVED THE ALL-AMERICAN AWARD FROM THE NATIONAL SCHOLASTIC PRESS ASSOCIATION (NSPA). THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, BASED IN MINNEAPOLIS, JUDGES MORE THAN 600 YEARBOOKS FROM AROUND THE COUNTRY ON THEIR OVERALL COVERAGE, THEME, DESIGN, WRITING, EDITING AND PHOTOGRAPHY. THE STAFF RECEIVED 3.880 POINTS OUT OF A POSSIBLE 4.000. "WE'VE WON THIS AWARD IN THE PAST, BUT NEVER SCORED THIS HIGH," SAID MRS. RHONDA OVERBEEKE, PUBLICATIONS ADVISOR. THE ALL-AMERICAN IS THE MOST PRESTI-GIOUS NATIONAL AWARD FOR HIGH SCHOOL JOURNALISM. THE YEARBOOK WAS ALSO AWARDED FOUR MARKS OF DISTINCTION IN WRITING AND EDITING, COVERAGE, CONCEPT AND DESIGN. BAIDINGER SAID, "I HAD A LOT OF FUN LAST YEAR, AND IT WAS NICE TO SEE THAT WE DID WELL, THAT WE IMPRESSED THE JUDGES.' JUNIOR SARAH LADOW, STUDENT LIFE EDITOR, SAID," IT WAS NICE TO BE A PART OF SOMETHING THAT DID SO WELL. JOURNALISM WAS WHAT INTERESTED ME AND I SPENT A LOT OF TIME IN THE PUBLICA-TIONS LAB. tarting the day with good fellowship, Christian Athletes (FCA) focused on increasing their faith. Mr. Andy Dorrel and Mr. Bud Ballou founded the group. Mr. Ballou said, "Mr. Dorrel and I decided to start a "huddle" in the fall of 1994 when he was hired at CPHS."

members. FCA usually met every other Friday at 6:50 in the morning. Mr. Dorrel some times ran the meetings, but many times the students shared the lessons. Senior Tim Murray said, "After everyone got situated with the free doughnuts, we started with an opening prayer, and then the two teen leaders took over. Some type of fun activity occured first followed by a discussion and Bible verse readings. We ended with a prayer, which voices everyone's concerns for the week."

FCA traveled to many outings and activities. Junior Katie Gancarz said, "Every Christmas we visited the elderly in the nursing homes and caroled to them. It was great to see the delight in their faces and the ministry that such a small visit could give." After going Christmas caroling, the athletes held a party at Mr. Stoner's house. The members played cards, ate pizza, and enjoyed socializing.

The club also spent time with other athletes from the Merrillville division of the club. In the spring, students attended Christian camp in Marshall, Indiana where they met students with similar beliefs, made new friends, and shared good times.

In addition, FCA participated in a retreat during March at the National Conference Center. FCA was a national organization. - Rebecca Samples

IGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION WERE NOT MEANINGLESS WORDS TO STUDENTS INVOLVED IN VIDEO CLUB. STUDENTS INTERESTED IN A CAREER IN BROADCASTING DISCOVERED HOW DIFFICULT IT COULD BE TO PRODUCE AND DIRECT A 30 MINUTE TELEVISION SHOW EACH WEEK. THE SHOW CONSISTED OF TWO 15 MINUTE SEGMENTS WITH NO COMMERCIALS. IT APPEARED ON CHANNEL 16, A PUBLIC ACCESS CHANNEL ON THE CABLE NETWORK.

THE FIRST SEGMENT COMPRISED OF A SPORTS SHOW HOSTED BY THE VOICE OF THE BULLDOGS, MR. ED O'BRIEN, AND WAS APPROPRIATELY CALLED

THE BULLDOGS SPORTS SHOW. IT COVERED SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE PREVIOUS WEEK AND INTERVIEWS OF VARIOUS SPORTS COACHES. IN ADDITION, THE TELECAST BROADCAST AN ENTIRE GYMNASTICS MEET AND WRESTLING MEET. "IT WAS A HIGHLIGHT IN SPORTS SHOW THIS YEAR," SAID MR. GEORGE TACTARIS, CLUB SPONSOR.

THE OTHER SEGMENT OF THE SHOW, C.P.H.S. SPOTLIGHT, PROVIDED INFORMATION ABOUT OTHER ASPECTS OF THE SCHOOL. THE TWO HOSTS OF THE SCHOOL, JUNIOR ADAM CONARD AND SENIOR JEN TOERING, CONDUCTED INTERVIEWS WITH SEVERAL FACULTY MEMBERS AND STUDENTS. FOR EXAMPLE, ONE SHOW INTRODUCED THE NEW SCHOOL PRINCIPAL, MR. LARRY STONER. THE TWO HOSTS PROVIDED AN OPPORTUNITY FOR THE COMMUNITY TO GET TO KNOW HIM A LITTLE BETTER. IN ADDITION, STUDENTS FROM HERO SPOKE ABOUT THEIR CHRISTMAS FUND RAISING PROGRAM, FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB MEMBERS RECOUNTED THEIR TRIP TO EUROPE, AND THE PUBLICATIONS STAFF EDITORS EXPLAINED THE INS AND OUTS OF

PUTTING TOGETHER THE YEARBOOK AND NEWSPAPER JUST TO NAME A FEW. "IT WAS VERY NERVE RACKING SEEING THE CAMERA STARING AT YOU, BUT IT WAS EXCITING TO BE A GUEST TOO," SAID JUNIOR HEATHER ARWOOD, YEARBOOK ACADEMICS EDITOR.

PRODUCING THE SHOW REQUIRED MANY HOURS AFTER SCHOOL. SOPHOMORE TOM BROSIUS SAID, "I DIDN'T MIND STAYING AFTER SCHOOL BECAUSE I WAS DEDICATED TO THE VIDEO CLUB. I ENJOYED PUTTING THE SHOWS ON. TOM AND JUNIOR MARTIN MUREK TAPED THE SHOW USING VIDEO CAMERA EQUIPMENT. MUREK SAID, "BEING THE CAMERA TECH I HAD A HUGE RESPONSIBILITY. IT WASN'T VERY HARD, BUT IT DID TAKE A LOT OF PATIENCE." -CONNIE GONZALEZ

PREVIOUS SUPERBOWL, ENDING THEIR TWO YEAR STREAK, THE DALLAS COWBOYS WERE OUT FOR BLOOD AGAINST THE PITTSBURGH STEELERS, THE AFC CHAMPS. WITH THEIR

COACHING STAFF, LED BY FORMER OKLAHOMA COACH BARRY SWITZER, THE COWBOYS USED NEW IDEAS COMBINED WITH OLD SUCCESS. DALLAS CAME OUT QUICKLY, SCORING A TOUCHDOWN IN THEIR FIRST POSSESSION, AND TWO FIELD GOALS IN

THEIR SECOND AND THIRD. AFTER JUMPING OUT 13-0. PITTSBURGH CAME BACK BY SCORING A TOUCHDOWN FROM A NEIL O'DONNEL PASS TO YANCEY THIGPEN WITH THIRTEEN SECONDS BEFORE THE HALF, GOING INTO THE LOCKER BOOM DOWN 13-7.

THE SECOND HALF PROVED TO BE A BATTLE AS WELL. JUST AS DALLAS LOOKED TO HAVE CONTROL OF THE BALL GAME, PITTSBURGH'S DEFENSE CAME BACK TO STOP THE COWBOYS FROM SCORING, PITTSBURGH'S RALLY WAS STOPPED IN THE THIRD QUARTER WITH AN INTERCEPTION THROWN BY O'DONNEL. DALLAS TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THE MISTAKE BY SCORING A TOUCHDOWN, GIVING THEM A 20-7 LEAD.

> PITTSBURGH THEN SCORED A 34-YARD FIELD GOAL TO CUT DALLAS'S LEAD DOWN TO 20-10. Knowing they wouldn't be ready for it. PITTSBURGH CAUGHT DALLAS OFF GUARD WITH A ONSIDE KICK, WHICH THEY RECOVERED TO GIVE THEM POSSESSION AGAIN WITH 11:20 LEFT IN THE GAME. THE PLAY TURNED OUT TO BE A MAJOR FACTOR, BECAUSE THE STEELERS CAPITALIZED BY SCORING A TOUCHDOWN, MAKING THE SCORE 20-17. THE DALLAS COWBOYS AND THEIR FANS SEEMED NERVOUS AFTER PITTSBURGH'S DEFENSE STOPPED EMMIT SMITH DURING THE MIDDLE OF THE FOURTH QUARTER. GIVING THE STEELERS THE BALL BACK AGAIN. AS SOON AS IT LOOKED LIKE PITTSBURGH HAD A CHANCE OF A VICTORY, DALLAS PICKED OFF A PASS FROM O'DONNEL AGAIN, WHICH TURNED OUT TO BE THE STEELERS' LAST CHANCE. BOTH OF

O'DONNEL'S SECOND HALF INTERCEPTIONS PLAYED A KEY PART IN THE COWBOY'S VICTORIES. THE COWBOYS HELD ON TO THE BALL AND SCORED IN THE END OF THE FOURTH QUARTER, ELIMINATING THE STEELER'S CHANCE AT THE TITLE, AND ENDING THE GAME WITH A SCORE OF 27-17. THE SUPER BOWL'S MVP WAS CORNERBACK LARRY

Brown who caught both of Dallas's interceptions. - Dan Baidinger

Ith the Atlanta Braves winning the National League pennant and the Cleveland Indians taking the American League, the World Series turned out to be the battle of the tribes. The Atlanta Braves jumped to a quick start, winning the first two games in Atlanta. Braves pitchers Greg Maddux and Tommy Glavine out-powered the Indians batting, giving the Indians a hard time to score runs. The Indians battled back to win two games of their own, but failed to hang on in game six, losing the series 4-2. - Dan Baidinger

One For The Record Books Bulls record "means not a thing without the ring"

A fter all was said and done, the Chicago Bulls finished their remarkable dream season with a record breaking 72 wins followed by a world championship. With the stacked starting lineup of Scottie Pippen, Dennis Rodman, Ron Harper, Luc Longley, and superstar Michael Jordan, the Bulls only suffered 10 losses in a long 82 game season. Dennis Rodman received his first world championship ring with the Bulls after joining the squad before the beginning of the year. He proved to be a valuable asset, leading the league in rebounds per game, and creating much controverrsy with his strange hair and attitude. He also debuted as a writer with his first book about his life in the NBA.

After leaving the NBA to play baseball, Michael Jordan finished his first complete season after coming back. Jordan led the NBA in average points per game, and also received the MVP award at the all-star game. Despite losing Pippen because of a back injury and Rodman being suspended at the same time toward the end of the season, the Bulls managed to keep winning. The team had a near perfect record on their home court, losing just one game to the Charlotte Hornets. This became the Bulls' fourth championship in six years. - Pan Baidinger ecause of the limited spaces available for the student parking, the rule has always been that only seniors could drive. Although the rule has always been around, sophomores and juniors still parked on campus because it was never really enforced. With Mr. Stoner becoming the new principal, and Mrs. Novak moving into the assistant principal's position, the rule was taken more seriously. "I think it's more fair for us seniors now that they are enforcing the parking rules. After all, we waited for three years to park here and underclassmen have to wait too," said senior Jim Noland.

Chicago Buils surprised fans by breaking the win record and winning the NBA championship. The Championship game took place against the Super Sonics. Only the Nick gave the Buils any trouble, defeating them in one game out of the series.

When anyone without the proper sticker parked on school grounds, the security officer placed a 4 inch by 6 inch neon green sticker on the driver's side window. The sticker was difficult to remove and a parking fine of $5.00 came along with it. In addition, after three stickers, the car was towed. "The stickers were very effective, and we plan to use them in the future," stated Mrs. Judy Novak. "I think a few problems need to be worked out with the new ticketing system. Several people got tickets and a few were towed even though they had the proper parking permit," said senior David Fauth.

akage causes water to fill halls and classrooms

th cold winter temperatures blowing in from the north, the building's pipes froze, causing water to leak through the roof. The rush of the water caused ceiling tiles to fall, leaving pieces of wet insulation and water thoughout the halls, classrooms, cafeteria, and offices. Because of this, many classes had to be moved for the time being. "When the water leaked into my U.S. History class, we were transferred to different rooms. It seemed we were in a different room everyday that week," said junior Brian Manning.

A major inconvenience occurred when water seeped into the attendance office. The busiest office in the school was roped off. Custodians quickly cleaned up the mess, making it usable the next morning. Mr. Larry Stoner, principal, said that had it not been for the great effort of maintenence and the custodians, the overnight breakage could have caused permanent damage, making parts of the school unusable.

The Chance Of A Lifetime Seven year old girl dies trying to fly across country n a bid to be the youngest person to fly across the country, seven year old Jessica Dubroff made the last flight of her life when she crashed and died in a tragic plane accident. Her flight was attempted in a single engine airplane, which had to have three inch extensions in order for her to reach the pedals. With her to make the long voyage was her father and her flight instructor. She took off from an airport in Cheyenne and headed herself to the distant East Coast.

The day before, she completed the first leg of an eight day trip, covering 6,900 miles. Just after departing from Cheyenne, Jessica flew into terrible weather. Heavy rain and winds made it difficult for Jessica to control the plane, but they decided to continue. The airplane had been weighted down by her, two adults, and enough luggage for an eight day trip.

Jessica never did make it to Ft. Wayne where a crowd was waiting to greet her. Instead, she crashed the plane just outside of Cheyenne. Experts said that Jessica definitely should not have been in control of the plane, especially in the conditions that she faced. Jessica's eighth birthday would have been two weeks from the day she died. - Dan Baidinger

EVEN THOUGH SOMETIMES WE GOT SWEPT AWAY BY THE EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES THAT SCHOOL PROVIDED, AND FRIENDS, ACADEMICS STILL REMAINED THE MOST IMPORTANT CONCERN OVERALL. Teaching styles influence learning

s teachers tried to keep students interested in classes, they often used different teaching techniques. Such devices included small group discussions, lectures with note taking, group work with note taking, essay writing, cooperative learning, video and audio recordings, and three part projects, which were written, oral, and visual presentations.

Miss Christina Vernia, a first year teacher at Crown Point, taught sophomore English, Regional Literature, and Conflicts in Literature. Miss Vernia felt that she could understand the students better because she remembered what it was like in high school. This may have contributed to her wanting to make classes more interesting. Idalski enjoyed Miss Vernia's classes was "if we got our homework done before the hour was over, instead of wasting time she'd have us play an educational game like vocab-bingo. It was easier to learn when you were having fun."

Mr. Andrew Dorrel, a world history teacher, planned his lessons around every learning style. Mr. Dorrel said. "I tried to plan lessons that incorporated a variety of learning styles to allow the students with different styles to learn how they were most comfortable." One way in which Mr. Dorrel did this was hands-on learning. His classes did projects on modern machinery that was built in the industrial revolution. Ms. Christy Steiger, an English and creative writing teacher, has had a lot of luck with cooperative learning. She said, "I have tried cooperative learning and found that it works very well. Not only did my students enjoy it, I had a lot of fun with it also." Ginny Johnson, a iunior in creative writing said. "Ms. Steiger's neat. She was a good teacher. Creative writing was one of my favorite classes. We did a lot of fun projects and Ms. Steiger always participated." The technique a teacher used when he or she taught often made a big difference in student participation and enjoyment. Sarah LaDow & Heather Arwood our hands are sweaty, you have a numbing headache, and you have that churning feeling in the pit of your stomach. Advanced Classes tended to have such an effect on students. Even though advanced classes created more homework and studying. many students opted to take them. Some students felt they were a good idea to prepare for college. Sophomore Carrie Fercik said, "I think that honors classes are vital to the school's curriculum. They continually push students to do their best, which helps them to learn more and to be better prepared for the expectations of college and life after it "

Advance classes challenge students

Students didn't have the phrase "blow-off class" in mind when they signed up for courses with names like these: Advanced Chemistry, Calculus, A.P. History, and Physics. Students knew these classes required many hours of studying which would cut into their social lives during the week. Sophomore Chris Blow said, "If I'm lucky, I'll have about two to three hours of homework a night." Advanced classes also tended to cause a lot of stress day in and day out . "I hate to miss a day in Pre-Cal because it's very stressful if I get far behind," stated junior Beth Hardt. Students worried if they had spent enough time studying, and then they would worry about how they did on the test.

Students took these classes to get the experience and knowledge needed to succeed later in life. "Advanced Chemistry is a hard class, but it is a good experience and allows you to learn about chemistry in greater detail," said junior Tiffany Sontag. In these classes students learned how to manage their study time. They also learned how to deal with other students by working in labs.

Most students chose the classes that applied to where they thought their future was headed. Many students that were not exactly sure where they were going took these classes to help make in their decision. These classes could sometimes lead to major accomplishments.

t was Sunday, January 7th, 8:00 PM. Junior Jenny Kerns had just sat down to write an English essay due Monday, January 8th, 3rd hour. Why? Procrastination The reasons varied, but it all came down to one thing: Putting it off. Why did Jenny do it? "I don't know. I'm just a really big procrastinator when it comes to reports. I always wait till the last minute and end up staving up all night the night before they're due." Many students argued that it was easier to start an assignment when they were pressed for time. Junior Becky Stephens said, "I only procrastinate when I have to do something big like a project, or study for a test. I work better when I have to get something done right then." However, other students admitted that they suffered because of procrastinating. Sophomore Amy Kraft said. "My teacher gave us two days in the library to work on an assignment. I only used about a half an hour, then I had to rush at the last minute to get it done. I can't help it. I don't study or anything when I should." Only a small percentage of the student population reported that they did not procrastinate. Senior Tina Wietbrock found it impossible to procrastinate and still come out on top. "I try not to procrastinate because I like to get things done early. Then if there are any last minute changes to make. I have time to make them and still relax and study for other classes." According to the teachers, the majority of students do proscrastinate and then run out of time failing to get something they intended to do finished. It was Sunday, January 8th, 12:54 AM. Jenny sighed with relief as she finished her essay and flopped into bed.

Shannon Kozeniewski, a sophomore, sleeps in the library Instead of doing her homework. Students found it hard to buckle down and actually do their work. Many went down to the library to help each other and to get away from the monotony of class, or just to he little things that made school bearable were the interesting projects students completed. Teachers assigned interesting projects to help students interact and work with each other. "Classes should emphasize being social, not always keeping to yourself," said junior Luke Stenger.

Drama and Art and Ideas were classes where students were involved in interesting projects just about every day. Students signed up for these classes with an enthusiasm of learning through hands on experience. In drama class, students learned the technique of acting and performed many skits to show their skills. "For my drama final my friend and I acted out Watermelon Boats," said sophomore Stacy Schmitz. ting up in front of my peers," stated sophomore Erin Thompson. Drama also went on a field trip to see a Shakespeare play. Nicole Parker said, "The best part (of the trip) was that I got to experience more drama."

Regular curricular classes also incorporated projects. Science classes went into the laboratories often to do experiments so they could actually visualize topics they had been learning about. One chemistry class made peanut brittle in their labs. Sophomore Rebecca Zemelko remembered, "We learned about the reactions with baking soda and other chemicals such as sodium." English classes gave demonstration speeches and did other similar projects. "In creative writing we made a hand turkey and wrote a poem where we were suppose to be the actual turkey," said junior Elleine Willis.

Some classes also went on field trips. The senior English class went on a field trip to Chicago to see the Art Institute. The third year French students went to the art institute also to see the Monet exhibit. The newspaper and yearbook went to Ball State for J-Day. Sophomore Melanie Marshall said, "We went to three classes of our choice. Professors from the college taught us.

isual and performing arts, provided a creative outlet for students. Many students took much pride in their art classes. Whether it was a music class, a drama class, or an art class, the students showed their most creative and talented sides. Freshman Shannon Yoder said. "These classes were more interesting because you didn't sit in a room and listen to a teacher talk all hour. The best part was you got to express yourself in these classes." " In paining class, I got to develop my skills and learn about a lot of interesting artist," said junior Monica Yates.

Choir, band, and orchestra made up the musical part of the performing arts. The musical groups traveled to many contests and brought home numerous awards. Junior Chris Walsh, one of the drum majors for the marching band, said, "I really enjoyed the class because it gave me a chance to just let go. I believe that visual and performing arts students tend to be the open and the bold."

The art department provided art classes for the students who enjoyed working in the different areas, but were not blessed with the artistic gene. Junior Tim Milosh said. "I enjoyed Art and Ideas because it allowed me to be creative without having great artistic ability." On the other hand there were many students that were blessed with exceptional talent. Sophomore Sara Cook said." I like to paint and use my creative ability and someday I hope to become an art teacher.'

Last, but not least, the drama department offered an artistic outlet. Students spent the semester learning how to project their voices and get rid of their fear of speaking in front of crowds. Sophomore Amy Kraft said, "I think this class really helped me to learn the composure I need for public speaking. and that will help me in my future." Chris Klein agreed that the public speaking part of the class was helpful. He said. ooking up excitement was the theme of the foods classes. These classes were an interesting part of the curriculum for many of the students. Junior Jen North said, "I have taken almost every home economics class they offer, but I think the foods classes were my favorites because we got to eat." Cooking seven course meals, baking cakes, and learning nutrition were the major points of the class. One of the more thrilling projects for this class was the cake decorating contest. The students made all different types of cakes and they were displayed down in the cafeteria during lunch, and the entire school had the chance to vote for the best one.

In addition, child development was an interesting learning experience for students. The class

The class held a play school for the local children. Many of the teachers' children and students' little sisters and brothers attended. The students got to teach the kids songs, games, and read them stories.

Clothing classes was another part of the Home Economics Department. These classes taught the students how to sew. follow patterns, and other skills to create clothing projects. The clothing class also took time to find which colors looked best on each student which helped them pick out material for projects. The class also took a field trip to a fabric store to pick out their patterns and fabric. With the help of the sales people, they could make sure they purchased the correct amount of supplies. Junior Joan Feder said, "My project was making a pair of black corduroy overalls. I was really proud of them because I could actually wear them and they didn't fall apart."

I thought, hev, what if someone wanted to make a profession out of this (welding)?" Welding was removed from the schedule at semester after the school board refused to approve hiring a parttime welding teacher. Four of the protesters, were invited to meet with administrators. In addition to Welding class, students also took several other technology classes. In technical drawing and graphics, students learned design and scale drawing. Sophomore Tim Miller said. "I hope to become an architect someday now that I've taken this class," Also, many spent time learning to repair their very own cars in auto shop. "This class was very beneficial and economical for a high school student with a car," said senior Larry Howard. Students participated in the machines class as well, which trained them on different types of modern equipment used in many of today's factories and tool shops. Senior Dave Prescott said, "I am now an apprentice at a machine shop in town. I'm hoping to make a career out of this." Finally, wood shop was a class for those with a good mind and skilled hands, according to freshman Chris Martin. The students chose projects that ranged from bread boxes to dressers. Students learn about frog dissection ou walked into class and were overcome by the pungent smell, your eyes began to water and a lump formed in the pit of your stomach. Yes, it was the day feared by all biology students. It was dissection day.

Every year students in biology and advanced biology took time out to go into the labs and dissect. The dissection of animals included crawfish, worms, frogs, rats, and sharks. This gave the students hands on experience to actually see what they had been reading about for weeks. It also gave students a break from the every day task of note taking and lecturing. "I didn't mind dissection. I believed it had educational value," said freshman Kevin Krajewski. Some students felt that this was the highlight of the year. Sophomore Chris Harvey said, "I liked it: it was fun," Others felt differently. As expected, some students felt that dissection was gruesome and was cruel to animals. "It was the most disgusting thing I ever did in my life," said Sophomore Whitney Rogers. Even with these attitudes, students still had to participate in dissection if they wanted to make the grade.

Movies and television always portraved dissection as a pain staking task of watching the frog die slowly at their hands. With a little help from the main character: however, all the animals were set free and nothing died. In reality, though, there were no acts of kindness where the students rose up and set all the animals free. Students having to chloroform the animals went out of style years ago. Students did not even have to use a real animal to see the graphic insides. The computer lab allowed the students to see the insides of frogs with the click of a mouse. In the future maybe the dissection of animals will be totally obsolete. Sophomore Andy Liss said, "I think that the computers helped a lot with dissecting the animals. We were better able to dissect them and find the parts of the animal."

Despite the protest, students had to deal with the stench, the burning eyes, and the disgusting details that dissection brought into the classroom. Whether or not students enjoyed dissecting specimens, it was still a learning experience. - Joan Feder igh goals and expectations were what the boys' soccer team had in mind for the season. And at the end of the season the boys' brought another sectional title home. Senior Brian Hurey said, "The seniors had set high goals for the season and we fell short on some of them. However, we ended on a high note, and that made it a pretty good season." Junior Nick Sarnecki felt the same. He said, "We started off a little slow, but we were able to pull it together and bring home another sectional championship."

The season began with two wins in the O'Rama over Boone Grove and Hobart. The boys lost the next 2 games to rivals Portage and Munster. They finished the regular season with 7 wins 6 losses and 1 tie. In the semi-finals of the sectionals, the boys' defeated Hobart for the third time. In the sectional finals, they faced Andrean. They had lost to Andrean earlier in the year by the score of 2 goals to 4, but this time it was different. The Bulldogs beat the 59'ers by a score of 2 goals to 1. Senior Mike Finnerty

At the end of it all, senior goalie Mike Bolde said, "Although we didn't have as good of a year as we expected, we managed to play well and win another sectional title." Girls' Soccer ups expectations eing only the second year for girls' high school soccer, the team proved that things could only get better over time. The girls started out their season at Portage with a tie (1-1). From there, they went on to face many difficult teams like Lake Central and Merrillville. "I thought it was easier this year because we had all played together last year and we only lost two starting seniors," stated Junior Heather Szalmasagi. The team was able to pull off victories against LaPorte, Highland, Hammond Noll, and Michigan City. Freshman Anne Balmes said, "This year the Duneland Athletic Conference decided to do away with overtime, causing us to tie games against Portage, Chesterton, Valparaiso, and Hobart."

The varsity ended their regular season with a record of 4-4-5. The varsity team then traveled to Lake Central for sectionals. "Despite a 6-0 loss, the girls played aggressively and never gave up," said assistant coach Dawn Mount. Senior Rachael McClanahan said, "I think we played a good game against Lake Central, especially since they have a more experienced team."

The team was led again by Coach MaryAnne Dodd and Assistant Coach Mount.

emand intensity. Expect success. This was the motto the Bulldogs lived and died by from day one. From the moment the players stepped into the weight room right after last year's season ended, the determination for success was there according to the team. The players struggled through the offseason preparing for the rigorous Duneland Conference and vastly improved over last year. "We learned what hard work and determination can bring," said senior Breandan Conley.

The year started off with a showdown in the RCA Dome in Indianapolis against their longtime rival, Merrillville. In a defensive struggle, the Bulldogs were able to pull out a narrow 10-7 victory. The regular season proved to be very successful for the Bulldogs with only three regular season losses.

Sectionals started out with a bang as the Bulldogs trounced East Chicago in a lopsided 35-12 victory, then rocked Merrillville in the rematch from the Dome 34-7. The Sectional Championship pitted the Bulldogs against the second ranked team Championship pitted the Buildogs against the second ranked team in the state, the Portage Indians. The first half was a battle in which the Indians were able to hold on to a slim 7-0 lead, but the Bulldogs came out fired up in the second half roaring to a 14-7 lead in the fourth quarter. The crowd prepared to rush the field as the Dogs had forced a near impossible 4th and 17 situation for the Indians. The Indians lofted a pass on the far sideline and were bailed out when the referee made a questionable pass interference call against the Bulldogs. The Indians soon scored the tying touchdown and forced overtime. The Dogs were forced to kick a field goal, and on the Indians' possession they were able to score a touchdown on their third play shattering the dreams of a sectional championship.

nding up the with an even record of 4-4, the junior varsity football team worked hard to stay competetive in the very solid DAC conference. They proved they could win big games by defeating the strong Lake Central team, LaPorte, the newly combined Michigan City team, and Chesterton. "We really worked hard during the preseason, and played well as a team.

Success can only come when a team plays good together, not just one superstar, but the whole team," stated sophomore Sam Roberts. The team was led with the strong arm of quarterback junior John Bolz, and running backs junior Kyle Klepsch and sophomore Brian Parker. "I worked real hard to be successful at my position. I needed to be as strong as possible," Parker said. The losses the team suffered had near equal scores and could have gone either way. "The games we did lose were very close. A few mistakes really hurt us," said junior John Bolz.

The freshmen football team finished a tough season with a 1-7 record. Freshman Kevin Knaga said, "My position at tight end was a good spot for me, but I thought our team was a little undersized." The one win of the season came with an amazing 200-yard rushing game by freshman Adam LaMere against Chesterton. "Knaga and Stone's blocking was aving the best for last. That could be the best way to describe the Boys'

Cross Country season. After starting off the season with a loss to Lake Central and a 9th place finish in the Warren Central Invitational, the Bulldogs responded with wins over Gavit and Valparaiso and had a 3rd place finish in the Rebel Invitational. They ended up with an overall record of 8 wins and 6 losses, and a conference record of 3 wins and 4 losses. Their conference standing was 6th place.

"Our season overall was a bit of a let down, but our performance in the state tournament kind of turned things around for us and made it a successful season," said Senior Felix Cervantes. "We lost some talent last year, but the team was able to step up at the end of the season."

The Bulldogs also posted wins over Duneland Conference rivals Hobart and Merrillville, but lost to conference powers Portage and LaPorte, and suffered a heart-wrenching one point defeat at the hands of New Prairie.

As sectionals rolled around, the Bulldogs had jelled together as a team and posted a third place finish. The boys ran to fourth place at the Regional competition against the likes of Portage. At Semi-State they were able to pull out a 16th place finish, but that was not good enough to qualify for a state appearance.

"I was quite happy that we were able to qualify for Semi-State for the fourth straight year, but I wish we could have gotten to State," said senior and team captain Tim Cash. - Shaun Knoch Senior Felix Cervantes paces himself in a meet at the Bulldogs home. Cross Country trots to state s the girls' cross country season got underway, the team opened with six straight wins, then lost three in a row, and after that went on to lose only once. This team was unstoppable being led by captains Jen Addison and Sherri Thompson along with Bethany Chandler, Brandy Hartman, and Kelly O'Brien who were named to the All-Conference Team. "Our team went through a grueling preparation to make it to state," said Brittany Hartman. Starting off in the Sectional competiton they captured a first place win and went on to the Regional race which involved ten teams. In this too they had a first place win which enabled them to move onto the Semi-State. Having State within their grasps, the team placed forth and waited anxiously to see if they did. Bethany Chandler said, "I thought we performed well as a team. Many different people stepped up every meet." This team was young and disciplined so working toward their advantage, they will have time to perform and practice as a team. With this to their advantage Brandy Hartman said, "I think being able to practice as a team longer will be a greater advantage to us because we will have more years to get the practice we need together as a building team." The team said that they are looking forward to a more prosperous year in the future. - Steve Idalski

t wasn't exactly a picturesque season, but the girls' varsity volleyball team got the job done. With the leadership of seniors Amy Burich, Dawn Personett, Donielle Camp, and Sarah Kazwell, the Dogs pulled together a season ending record of 20 wins and 11 losses and a 5th place finish in the Duneland Conference. In the Crown Point Invitational, the Bulldogs took a first place finish by beating North Newton, Pendleton Heights, Indianapolis Brebruf, and defeating Andrean in the final match by a score of 15-12, 15-3. Later in the season, however, the 59'ers avenged the loss by the score of 15-8, 12-15, and 10-15.

Beth Jacobs, in her third year as varsity coach after 4 seasons as junior varsity coach led the team. The season began on a high note with two wins in the Tri-match with Hammond Clark and Hanover Central. After winning matches against Bishop Noll, Munster, and Calumet, the Dogs lost to Valparaiso, Lowell, and Michigan City respectively. The Lady Bulldogs won the last 3 matches of the season against Chesterton, Highland and a tough Portage squad.

The time for sectionals soon arrived. The Dogs lost in the first round of the sectional 11-15 and 9-15 to Merrillville, "It was a really disappointing loss. I think the girls could have won it. We ended the season in a winning fashion and went into the sectionals with a good attitude, but they still beat us for the second time this season," said Coach Jacobs. Senior Cyndy Feder said, "We had a good start winning the Crown Point Invitational. I just wish we could of went farther." Girls travel bumpy road

Il summer long the members of the junior varsity and freshmen volleyball teams eagerly anticipated the start of the season. The first day of try-outs were held in August. After three days the teams had been carefully chosen and practices began. Practices were long and early, beginning around 7 A.M. every morning during the summer including Saturday. "Getting up so early in the morning didn't really bother me very much," said J.V. player freshman Carolyn Thompson.

When the seasons started the JV team was made up of six freshmen and seven sophomores. Freshman Shannon Meyers said. "It was was hard because we were playing teams that had three or four juniors on them, with the rest sophmores, and they all had one or two more years of experience than we did."

The first games were played in August, before school had even begun. Neither team started off very well. That trend seemed to continue through both of their seasons. The junior varsity ended their season with a disappointing 10 win and 15 loss record. The freshmen team finished with a record of 5 wins and 9 losses. Despite the records, the players believed they had a good season. Freshman team member Renee Ullman said. "Even though we lost a majority of our games, I think we still had fun and learned."

Freshmen coach, Mrs. Becky Cowan, was in her first year of coaching. The J.V. coach, down low. sophomore Mary Walter attempts to bump the ball to her teammate in a iunior varsitv home match with Highland. Mary was one of the leading passers.

Ms. Angie Henly was in her second year as coach. Coach Henly said, "We had a lot of talent on this year's team, but for some reason, we just couldn't seem to put it together and work as a team. However, I really enjoyed working with these girls. We all got along great and had a lot of fun along the way. I really think the girls learned a lot and I hope they continue to practice."

Varsity ends year strongly fter a slow start due to some injuries and some late comers, the varsity team picked up the pace. Sprinting every morning and practicing every night, the wrestlers had little time to rest. "At the end of the week, the sprints got very hard because I had nothing to eat or drink most of the week," said senior Sean Clancy. After a few rough losses, the Dogs hit a hot streak capturing first place in the Carnahan tournament and crushing the LaPorte team.

With this win under their belt, the team finally gained the respect they deserved going into tournament time. Lead by senior Chris Catalano, who was ranked first in the state at one point in the season, the team advanced nine of there thirteen wrestlers to the regional. "In the state tournament, you can't look past anyone. Everyone is giving their all and trying to upset the state ranked wrestlers," said senior Chris Catalano.

With a strong showing in the regional, the Dogs advanced five seniors to the semi-state match in Merrillville. After all the semi-state dust had settled, the team found one lone wrestler at the state finals, Chris Catalano. "It was very disappointing not to advance to the state finals my senior year, but I didn't let it affect my practice habits with Chris," said senior Geremy Milner. At the state finals, Catalano advanced past the first round, only to lose the next round, but still managed to capture eighth place. - Tim Milosh etting off to a slow start, the freshmen team had a limited number of wrestlers with very little experience. The team had much to learn in a short amount of time according to Coach Del Kutimer. However, with the great leadership and coaching abilities of Coach Kutimer, the players felt that they would be successful and learn a great deal. Kutimer believed training a new group was a hard job, but not impossible.

With practice every day after school and tournaments every Saturday, the freshmen received a lot of mat time and experience preparing them for J.V. and varsity next year. "Wrestling is a very demanding and time consuming sport, but well worth it when you feel the rush of defeating an opponent," said freshman Phil Dorrin.

The junior varsity's time consuming schedule proved much worse. "We practice every day with the varsity and sprint most mornings, and receive very little credit for the varsity's success," said sophomore Mark Kiser. Girls' Swimming goes to state nder the tutelage of coaches Doug Norris, Mike Casey, and Ken Mikrut, the girls' swimming and diving team had one of their best seasons in recent memory. The season opened up with a convincing win over Duneland Athletic conference rival Merrillville by the score of 119 to 67. In the next 7 meets, the team only lost two to Valparaiso and Munster, respectively. The girls' placed first in sectionals, which qualified them for the state finals in 10 out of 12 events.

According to Coach Norris, "This (state qualification) was made possible because of the leadership shown by juniors Abby McMullin, Hedi Walter, and Heather Nance." Seniors Beth Garretson, Leslie Evans, and Heather Chandler served as team captains for the girls and Chandler also placed 13th place at the state level. According to Coach Norris, the top 16 were considered the championship finalists. In all, eleven girls qualified for events at state.

Coach Norris was pleased with the teams progress. He said, "There were a number of motivating factors, but I think the main one was the sectional dinner. We had a good season this year because we had more depth and swam more like a team, plus we had more fun compared to last year's team."

The Most Improved Swimmer award went to Katie Gora, who improved 25 seconds in her 500 freestyle and the Best Newcomer award went to freshman Feather Metsch. Junior Heather Nance and senior Heather Chandler won the Most Valuable Swimmer and Diver awards, respectively. Summing up the season, Coach Norris added, "If the girls only remember one thing from this season, I want them to remember that this season was one big green event." -Cindy Thompson fter all was said and done, the boys' swimming team found themselves doing the doggy paddle at the beginning of the year. "Our dual meet record was not as good as it should have been, but that was my fault, giving them hardly any rest before the meets," said Coach Doug Norris. However, as the season progressed, the team picked up the pace acquiring faster times and swimming more as a team, according to Coach Norris.

Although the inexperienced team started off slowly, it matured rapidly, and as the team hoped, it improved by tournament time. With fast times and near perfect dives, the guys managed to pull in a third place at the sectional. "I feel that my sectional dives were probably my best set of dives all year," said senior Mark Butcher. Mark made it all the the way to state competition for the second year in a row. He placed 14th at the semi-state.

Girls reach regional finals or yet another year the Lady Bulldogs proved to be the best the Merrillville sectional had to offer by winning it for the seventh consecutive time. The regular season proved to be just as successful as the girls posted a 13-5 regular season mark and a 17-6 overall record.

The road to success was not easy, though, due to the rugged schedule including 9 state ranked teams. The team opened up with an incredible 10-1 record with their only loss to Warsaw by a final count of 70-66. Hard times fell on the Lady Bulldogs when junior Jen Urbanski went down with a severe knee injury in the middle of the Lake Central game. She was lost for the season. The Huntington Tourney proved to be a learning experience as the girls lost both of their games including a nail-biter to Kokomo 52-51. The team closed out the regular season with a 5-2 mark in the Duneland Conference with their only losses going to Hobart and Chesterton.

As sectional play started, no one could come close to the Lady Bulldogs as they rolled through the sectional with their closest game coming against the host Merrillville, Pirates 49-42. In the regionals, the Lady Bulldogs were pitted against a very strong West Side team. The girls pulled off a near impossible come-from-behind victory winning 61-59 in overtime after trailing by as many as 9 points in the final minute of the game. Junior Angela Babjak said, "It's a real fun experience when all your hard work pays off and you feel the intensity of your team and the crowd during tournament time." The regional finals faced the Lady Bulldogs against the Lake Central Indians. The Indians, unlike West Side, were able to hold off a furious comeback by the Bulldogs in the final minutes ending the girls' season. Girls keep tradition alive ith a new coach at the helm of the girls' freshman team and an experienced leader coaching the junior varsity, both teams proved to the basketball fans that the winning tradition would continue. Junior

Jennifer Kutanovski played on both teams. She said, "It was really difficult to play on both teams at the same time, but I know I'll have the experience for next year."

Chris Kobza, a former lady bulldog player from 1985-1989, made her coaching debut as head freshmen girls coach, assistant J.V. coach, and varsity assistant coach. Ms. Kobza said, "My first year of coaching at Crown Point was a learning experience. I saw the coaching responsibilities which I never knew existed as a player. I enjoyed coaching the girls. I now know what to expect for next year."

In his 11th year with the program, Mr. Scott Reid was leading the junior varsity team for the third year in a row. "These girls had great potential," said Coach Reid. Both teams fared well all season long winning a majority of their games against some pretty tough opponents. "This team more than any other found ways to win games. Boys reach sectional finals fter opening the season on a blistering 4-0 pace, the Dogs were silenced by the Portage Indians in an overtime battle which featured a huge comeback on the part of the Indians. This set off a midseason slump for the Dogs which they were able to work their way out of by sectionals as they advanced to the sectional championship game.

The regular season was a bumpy road, filled with ups and downs as the team finished with a 9-11 record. After the Highland game, the Dogs then squeaked by LaPorte, but then dropped four straight. Against Valparaiso they surged out of their slump crushing the Vikings by a count of 82-65. The only wins after Valpo were wins over Chesterton and Griffith. The Dogs suffered a devastating loss to the hands of the Lake Central Indians, 62-26, which seemed to motivate them for sectional play. Senior center Bill Wirtz said, "We didn't win as many games as we wanted to, but I feel we had a pretty good year."

When sectionals rolled around, the Bulldogs caught fire scorching the Hobart Brickies 80-62 in a game which featured hot shooting from nearly every player as they were unstoppable from the perimeter draining three pointers at a relentless pace. The win set the Dogs up for a showdown with the Merrillville Pirates for the second time in the season, which the Pirates won 46-43. The game was a battle throughout as the lead was exchanged countless times in the first half. During the second half, the Pirates grabbed a commanding lead, but the Dogs fought back led by the efforts of hot shooting senior Damon LaBorde and junior star Angelo Grecco. The lead was cut to four points in the last minute, but the Pirates connected on their free throw attempts in the waning seconds to end the Bulldogs season by a score of 72-62. "I was just glad I was able to help my team when they needed it," said senior Damon LaBorde. - Shaun Knoch

s the season rolled down to an end, the boys junior varsity basketball team closed out the year with three consecutive losses which didn't show the fire and winning ways they experienced through the rest of the season. They finished with a 9-11 record overall and a 3-4 conference record, which included a nail-biter against Michigan City where the Dogs won 51-48. The other conference victories came against Valparaiso and Chesterton, both of which were easily won by the Dogs. "Stupid penalties and careless mistakes cost us a lot of games, but overall we played good together as a team," said junior Brian Connelly. "I think we relied too much on our perimeter shooting and that caused some bad situations for our transition defense."

The freshman team, on the other hand, experienced an unblemished season at a perfect 17-0 record. Their total domination was only contested by Portage, which they disposed of in overtime 55-50. Hobart gave them their only other challenge in a defensive battle in which the Dogs beat the Brickies 33-31. Along with the perfect season, the freshman team was able to win the Highland Holiday tournament. They also won their conference with a 7-0 mark. "I think it was a real learning experience for us to be on such a successful team. It gave us a chance to grown and learn as a team," said ith a squad consisting of only fifteen girls, more than double the previous years total, the girls gymnastic team compiled a record of two wins and eight losses. Freshmen Anne Taylor said, "Eight of the girls on the team were freshmen, so I think that in the next few years we will get better every year as long as we continue to work in the off-season." Coach Paula Leudtke, in her second season of coaching the girls at Crown Point said, "At the beginning of practices in December, I had the girls set goals for themselves individually and as a team. I really think that helped in the improvement I saw in the girls over the course of the season. I'm really proud of them."

Sophomore Laurie Splitgerber said, "I think overall we had a good year. We worked really hard despite our record, and we accomplished some of our most important goals. I think as the years go on we will improve."

The team sent junior Melissa Kramer to the Portage sectionals where she placed fourth in the all-around competition. She then advanced to the regionals and won a sixth place finish on vault and on bars. This finish qualified her for the state finals in Indianapolis on fter starting off the season in a slump, the girls softball team was able to respond by ending the regular season with a 9-15 record. An injury riddled season prevented the team from reaching the expectations set upon them at the beginning of the season. The Lady Dogs ended the year with a 6-8 record in the Duneland conference, a conference which included state powers Merrillville and Portage.

In the sectional, the Lady Dogs drew the state's number three ranked teamed in Lake Central. The Lady Indians were just too powerful and made the big plays necessary in pulling ahead and eventually winning 13-2. The loss came in the sectional semi-final game. Junior Leslie Oesterle said, "We didn't win as many as I think we should have, but we had a very good season. I thought it was pretty neat-o!" Leslie was the only player to hit a home run for the girls. Sophomore Andrea Claussen said, "I had a lot of fun and really look forward to playing in our summer softball league."

The JV team finished off their season with a 9-12 record overall and finished 7-7 in the Duneland Conference. They showed they had an explosive offense by scoring in double digits seven times throughout the year including a flat out whipping against North Newton 22-0. Portage was the only team to contain the bats of the Lady Dogs shutting them out 15-0. The continuity needed for teams to excel was not there, however, because the JV team was forced to move up some of their players to Varsity based on great improvement as well as the fact that the varsity team experienced many injuries. The JV team was led by freshman Nikkie Kaiser and sophomore Erin Villa with their defensive capabilities and offensive prowess. - Shaun Knoch

t was tied one game to one when the Merrillville Pirates and the Bulldog baseball team went to bat in the semifinal game of the sectional. The Pirates had prevailed in the early season game 7-3 and the dogs won the second match up 7-0. However, three times was not a charm for the Dogs as they lost 3-1 and ended the dream of a sectional championship. "They were the better team," said senior J.J. Swiatkowski, "We just couldn't get hits. It was disappointing."

Ending the season with a 12-11 record, the boys baseball team had its share of ups and downs. Opening the season with two losses and lots and lots of rain put a damper on the spirits of the players. The guys came back; however, defeating Chesterton 10-12. They next played a double header against Lake Central on a chilly Saturday morning winning the first game 5-4 and dropping the second one in a tough battle 4-5.

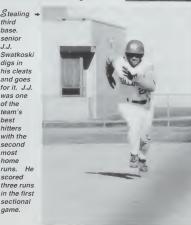

In mid season, the guys virtually alternated wins and losses. Other than a doubleheader sweep of Highland, the Dogs did not win back-to back games until the last four games.

Coach Ed Sherry said at the time, "If we ever get consistency, we could be a heck of a team, but for some reason, we just can't do that,"

Toward the end of the season, they got it together winning their last four regular season games. In the Portage game, senior pitcher Brain Allande struck out five and walked four, allowing only six singles helping the team win 5-3. The team grabbed a close one with Hobart 9-8, smoked Griffith 15-5, and soundly defeated Morton 9-5. Then in the first game of the sectional, the Dogs looked better than ever as they won against Hanover Central 12-3. However, the big purple school to the north once again stopped them in their tracks in the next game. Assistant Coach Larry Collier said, "We had a lot of talent on this team, but all of it just never surfaced. I don't know why." -Dan Baidinger

Ball players seek experience

inding out high school ball was not as easy as it looked, the J.V. and freshman baseball teams took there lumps. But those were far and few between finishing with 7-9 and 15-4 records respectively.

Beating such Duneland Athletic Conference rivals as Chesterton and Hobart, the JV team got in its share of punishing, while struggling against a few teams also. "So many games we lost were only by a few runs. Our record doesn't reflect our talent as well as it should have," said junior Ryan Sepoil. The JV team, coached by Mr. Tim Gault, practiced very hard despite the nasty weather. "This was on of the worst Springs we have had in a long time. Even though we could practice some things indoors, most of the time practice had to be held outdoors," explained coach Gault. In addition, the junior varsity team had to adjust its lineups because of key players moving up to the varsity level.

The freshman team started out with a bang scoring 23 runs in their season opener against Hammond Gavit. They then went on to win their first eleven games. "We really started the season out hitting the ball. We could still win games when our opponents scored thirteen or fourteen runs," said freshman Ryan Rapp.

he boys' tennis team compiled a 15-5 record, including a 5-2 mark in the rugged Duneland Conference. The Bulldogs stormed through the first half of the regular season dropping only one match to powerful West Lafayette 0-5, and had key conference victories over LaPorte, Michigan City, and Hobart.

The second half of the season proved to be a little more difficult as the Bulldogs started out with a grueling 3-2 victory over rival Merrillville, then lost to conference and state power Portage 0-5. East Chicago and Chesterton proved to be of little competition as the Bulldogs stomped both by a final count of 5-0. The Dogs then lost to conference rival Valparaiso 2-3 and to their long time enemy, Munster, but won all the other matches on their regular season schedule.

Varsity opened up the sectionals with a 5-0 shellacking of Calumet, then trounced

Griffith 4-1 to advance to the regionals where they met Lake Central. The Dogs finished off the Indians with little trouble by a final count of 5-0. The regional finals matched the Bulldogs up against their long time nemesis Munster. The Bulldogs once again fell to Munster by a final count of 1-4. The Dogs could not overcome the talent of Munster.

Jim Kacmar said, "The season ended on the down side, but the team enjoyed a very successful year." The Bulldogs were led by seniors Tim Murray, Jim Kacmar, and Team MVP Chris Costakis. Kacmar and Costakis were named All Conference. Tim Murray said, "We had a great year from players like Brian Manning and Jason Steinberg as well. Jay and I played a lot together in doubles. cquiring their second consecutive sectional championship and making it to the regional finals, the girls' tennis team held their heads up high. The team ended the regular season with a 10-8 record and a conference standing of 6th. After an easy sweep in the sectional, the team played Highland in the first game of the regional and trounced them with a 5-0 score. Two days later, however, they were unable to defeat. Munster, who was ranked 6th in the state.

The girls shook off the first loss winning the next three in row against Griffith, Lake Central, and Highland, respectively.

In the Merrillville Doubles Tournament, the girls placed 3rd out of ten teams, only missing the a number two spot tie with Andrean by a mere point. fter the retiring of head coach Mr. Dan Johnson, the Bulldogs needed new leadership to take over the team. Mr. Michael Chelap eagerly took the head coach spot and awaited a successful season.

The Bulldogs started out hot, beating their nemesis Andrean by one stroke. "The win against Andrean really started our season off with a bang," said junior Jim Boscia. Their next match was against the region's powerhouse Munster. The Dogs lost, but only by three strokes which proved they could hang with anybody.

During the annual Uebele tournament, Crown Point took 7th place out of a wide field of 31 teams. The thrill of the day was senior Chad Henley's score of 75 for eighteen holes. "Sometimes you just play so well that you even surprise yourself. I guess that goes hand in hand with hard practice though," said Chad.

Chad was also honored when he was named to the Duneland Conference team.

The team finished the season with a record of 14-6. The Bulldog's tied with Portage for second place in the Duneland Athletic Conference, behind the newly combined Michigan City team. At the sectional tournament, the Dogs slipped behind Andrean taking second ith three straight losses, it didn't look good for the girls' golf season, but they still managed to capture a third place tie in the Duneland Conference, with a final record of 4-3 in the conference and 5-7 overall. Coach Mike Chelep thought this was a great accomplishment from such a young team lead by Cyndi Gallagher and Nikki Hays, both underclassmen. "Our main goal was to finish fifty percent in the Duneland conference this year, and it pleased me to see us meet these goals," he said.

"This was a season filled with highs and lows, but the most important thing was we looked past the lows, and pursued to accomplish further highs," stated sophomore Nikki Hays. One of the many team highlights was, Cyndi Gallagher's hole in one on a 128-yard par 3 at the LaPorte golf invitational. When asked about her ace, Cyndi said, "It made me feel like I have made a big contribution to the team." Other high points included having Cyndi named to the Duneland All Conference Golf Team and the team's defeat over Merrillville with a record low score of 190.

Boys' track takes 4th in DAC

ompeting in the strong Duneland Athletic Conference, Bulldog track members had their work cut out for them. Led by coach Bud Ballou, who took on the team for one last year before retiring from coaching, the team wanted their long time respected coach to end his career in style. "Being that this was coach Ballou's last season of coaching after so many years, we felt that we owed him our best," said sophomore Dave Patti. Starting out the season against neighboring rival Lowell, the Dogs began their season off with an impressive win. Struggling against large, strong teams such as Lake Central, Valparasio, and Michigan City, the team needed to pull together in order to win. That they did by winning their next nine out of ten meets. "I felt that we really worked hard this year. Sometimes extra effort overweighs talent," stated junior Eric Samples.

The Bulldogs had an impressive meet against Hobart, Griffith, and River Forest, scoring their season high of 117 points, which beat all three teams. After a fourth place finish at the Duneland Conference meet, the team prepared for their sectional. The competition didn't get any easier as the Bulldogs competed in the very talented Gary Roosevelt Sectional. Celebration was in order after the relay team of senior Dave Warne, juniors Jeremy James and Bryan Rutherford, and freshman Ryan Angerman broke the school's 400 meter relay record with a time of 43.4 seconds. "I didn't anticipate a school record until I saw James take off with the relay stick. Then I knew for sure that we would be successful," stated junior Bryan Rutherford. The boys' track team ended the regular season with a final record of 11-6. It also finished fourth place at the sectional which was its last meet of the season. The 400 meter relay team missed the cut at regionals, but Bryan Rutherford qualified for the state meet in Indianapolis in the 200 meter dash.-Dan Baidinger lacing second in the sectional, 8th in the regional, and sending a runner and a relay team to State made for an exciting season for the girls' track

The 3200 meter regional championship relay team of Brandy Hartman, Bethany Chandler, Bethany Garretson and Kelly O'Brien ran a phenomenal race in the IHSAA Track and Field State Championship and finished as the state runner-up in the event. according to Coach Ken Witt. He said, "By virtue of their 2nd place finish, all the girls earned All-State status. Their time of 9:28:38 set a new school record, beating their provious best time by 10 seconds." Sophomore Bethany Chandler agreed that the team did a wonderful job. She said, "We all ran a really great race. It felt good to win regionals and then place 2nd at State."

The team ended the indoor season with a 3-1 record and the outdoor season 8-5. The girls also took 4th place in the Duneland Conference. In the Purdue finals, the team had three place finishers, the most in the team's history. Sophomore Kelly O'Brien placed 7th in the 1600 meter run. The distance medley team of Beth Garretson, Jen Sanders, Carolyn Taylor and Jen Addison placed 5th, and the 3200 meter relay team place 3rd

All in all it was a terrific year for the team. Since most of them were so young, Coach Witt was looking forward to the next couple of years too.

CPettes compete in nationals ancing their way to success, the CPettes advanced all the way to nationals where they placed eighth. Michelle Smith said, "I felt it was a great opportunity for the squad. I feel we did a great job even if we didn't place first. It gave us a chance to compete at a very high skill level."

Being categorized as cheerleaders throughout the year was misleading because while both performed during the games, they were not similar. Junior Jenny Kerns stated, "Both cheerleading and Poms takes a lot of work, but while poms are dancers, cheerleaders do cheers. I am on Poms because we love to dance and that is what we do."

There was much controversy over the uniforms that the Poms wore while performing in the beginning of the year. With startling reactions from the crowd, the Poms were banned from performing at home in the body suits. "All the uniforms that we wore this year were normal dance team uniforms. Many people saw some of them as unacceptable, but they don't realize that everyone wears them. Just go to a competition and you'll see the different types that are worn by the many schools competing. I think that we received a lot of undeserved criticism and little respect from the crowd," said Larissa Shamesfter competing in a number of camps and competitions, the Crown Point cheerleaders came away with numerous awards. Twenty-six out of the 31 cheerleaders attended the National Cheerleading Competition in Tennessee over Christmas Break. Senior Tiffany Raker said, "We had fun in Tennessee because the competition was held at Opryland. Even though we didn't win as many awards as we would have liked to, we would still do it all over again." At this competition the girls took a fourteenth place finish.

Cheerleaders keep the spirit

Later in the year, the squads took part in the Purdue Calumet Cheerleading Competition. Junior Becky Stephens said, "We worked well as a unit even though the freshmen were grouped with the junior varsity squad, and that's the reason why we finished first in the junior varsity division." Varsity also took a first place award. Senior Linda Powers said, "After Nationals, this was our second chance to show the other schools in the area what we were made of." In this competition were over 300 young men and women from 30 different

With the longest season of any sport, senior Megan Thom said, "The Cheerleaders put in much more of their own time and dedication in their sport, but I think it's worth it in the long run. And I hope that the hard work is continued by future squads." -Cindy Thompson

Senior Linda Powers pumps up the fans by performing one of the crowds favorite cheers during a time out of a varsity game. Linda has been chearleader since seventh arade.

Awaiting the crowning of the Homecoming Queen during the football game, senior Tiffany Raker prepares to present flowers to the winner.

← Mounted in a difficult pyramid, the varsity and the junior varsity squads combine for the extra added support for the base.

Mrs. Novak seizes The opportunity

Why did you decide to stop teaching home economics and become a vice principal?

"Being an administrator was something I was always interested in, but I felt I couldn't devote the time needed for this position while my children were young. I began taking graduate classes during my youngest child's senior year in high school."

Is there any special requirements that you need to become a vice principal?

"Yes. You must take graduate classes to qualify for an administrative license. I will be receiving an Ed.S. degree in Educational Administration in August of 1996."

Do you prefer teaching or administration?

"They are very different. I miss the one to one relationships that are easier to form in a teacher-student relationship. However, in administration, I enjoy dealing with curriculum and helping to create programs which well benefit many students."

Do you plan to continue as vice principal?

"Yes. My goal is to eventually be a principal or to possibly work in the area of curriculum in a school corporations' central office."

Do you ever plan to teach again?

"I feel as if I "teach" each day. I will probably not be an actual classroom teacher again, but there are many ways to help students learn."

Mr. Ballou Turns Back the Clock

How did you feel about having an award named after you?

"I felt honored that there were athletes who were willing to work hard and overcome obstacles in their athletic pursuits. The reward of seeing this "never say die" attitude was gratifying."

How long have you been teaching at Crown Point and how has it changed over the years?

"I have been teaching and coaching for 20 years. Many changes have taken place from enrollment of over 2,400 and many teacher and administrative changes. I also think our student athletes have become more dedicated and competitive."

What stands out the most when you reflect on your career?

"The enjoyment of seeing so many students have great success beyond high school in their career pursuits. Certainly the warm friendships one develops among staff members is a pleasant memory."

What is the funniest excuse you have received for a student not turning in his homework?

"A student failed to turn in his homework because he was spending all his time on one class. The only problem was that one class was the only class he passed."

r.Bud Ballou Scans the local newspaper for current events to discuss in his social studies classes. During his twenty years of teaching, he taught most of the social studies classes including world history, psychology, government, and economics. Mr. Ballou had an athletic award named in his honor.

Mrs. Moser reads Between the lines

Why were you a member of the discussion committee?

"I was a member of the discussion committee because it enabled me to become familiar with issues facing all teachers, since each building has feachers serving on the committee. On occasion, I was better able to understand the problems of administrators. Most importantly, I could help bring the concerns of other high school teachers to the administration's attention."

Why did you decide to become an English teacher?

"I decided to become a teacher when my youngest child was two and I realized that I wanted a career that would challenge me as well as fit into my children's school schedules. I decided to become an English teacher because I was raised in a family of readers and conversationalists and have always loved books and words. Happily, I was able to develop this deep interest into a career which I have always enjoyed."

When you retire, what do you plan to do?

"I don't know what I plan to do when I retire because I intend to look into other possible careers when I leave Crown Point High School.

What was your favorite English subject to teach and why?

"My favorite English subject to teach is whatever I'm teaching at the moment. I've taught all ability and grade levels, and all were special and favorite in some way. I enjoy the mathematical quality of grammar as well as the creative challenge of composition, the unpredictable variety of speeches as much as the timeless values of literature. It has rarely been boring."

Turing her sophomore English class, Mrs. Donna Moser lectures from the podium during a literature unit. Mrs. Moser also taught World Literature, After over 27 vears of service, she retired at the end of the year.

Mrs. Pruitt speaks With foreign tongue

How many years have you been teaching and what is your most memorable moment?

"I've taught for 301/2 years. It is very difficult to pick out only one special moment; however, I remember the day a student came up to me after class to say that he had suddenly realized that he was no longer translating what I said (in Spanish), but that he understood it directly. That may not sound like a big deal to others, but it was thrilling for both of us and would be to anyone who has struggled to learn a foreign language."

What do you like the most about teaching?

"I like the creative aspect of teaching and also working with students. I enjoy the mental challenge, and I have always had a lot of fun with the kids. Every class has clever and crazy people in it."

What do you dislike about teaching the most?

"I dislike most having to give grades. It would be more fun just to make up activities for students to use the language and not have to give quizzes and tests all the time."

What was your most embarrassing moment teaching?

"I can't think of anything. I guess I don't embarrass easily."

What are your plans after retiring?

"My husband and I are going to move to Brown County in southern Indiana, not far from Bloomington. After we get settled in, I intend to get a part-time job. If I miss teaching too much, maybe I'll try to get a class or two to teach at I.U. We also plan to do some traveling and just generally have a good time."

rs Pruitt retired at the end of the year.

Wozniak makes The grade

What was it like down at the Indiana Academy?

"It was the most frightening, wonderful experience I have ever had. I gained so much respect for different types of people and lost a lot of the prejudices that I used to have. Also, I made some of the best friends there. Aside from the overload of work and lack of time, I really loved being there.

How long where you down there?

"I was there for one full school year from the end of August until mid-May."

What was it like to be by yourself for that period of time?

"I would say that I learned more about myself in that year than in the culmination of the rest of my life. It was interesting to see myself manage my time and studies without really having to answer to anybody. When I look back now, I am amazed at how much I accomplished."

Did you receive any college credit?

"I had the option of taking courses for free through Ball State University to receive high school credit. I chose not to do this because the Academy offered such an interesting combination of courses. Like anyone else, if I wanted to receive college credit, I would have had to pay."

Why did you go down there?

"I think I surprised everyone -myself included- by choosing to go away. I knew that my acceptance there was a great opportunity to prepare myself for the future. I was very excited to constantly be around people who were like me, and it turned out to be beneficial."

Why did you come back?

"There were many reasons why I chose to return to Crown Point. My family had undergone some pretty tremendous changes and the idea of having my own bedroom and bathroom was extremely appealing by the end of May. It was really difficult to leave, but I do not regret it."

Do you like going to school here or down there better?

"There is really no fair way to compare the two. Each school has certain aspects that suit me, and each has things that are not right for me. If given a chance, I would not reverse any of my decisions."

hristine Wozniak works hard on her advance math homework. Christine went to the Indiana Academy at Ball State last school year.

Moore finds happy Hunting ground

How long have you been hunting?

"I started hunting and learning the basics when I was around 4 or 5 years old. I started with my father."

"I have killed an 18 point. Typical, that was the biggest in the state of Indiana's history."

Do you hunt with a bow or a gun?

"Bow season is open October through the end of December. So I prefer to use my bow, it's a lot more challenging."

What time do you usually go out hunting?

"I usually wake up around 4:15-4:30 A.M., if I go in the morning. If I go out in the evening, I like to go about 1:30 P.M."

What is your favorite season?

"My favorite season is late archery. The weather is terribly cold, and not many hunters are in the woods then. I don't like to see other people when I'm in the woods. It's an escape from public."

What are the best hunting grounds in this area?

"In my opinion, any private land along the Kankakee river or any private land you can get permission to be on land that doesn't have hunting pressure, and has a good food, water, and cover ability."

Where do you hunt the most?

"It's hard to get permission because of irresponsible hunters who only hunt one time a year and cause trouble, so I hunt at three different places."

enior Joe M o o re draws back and takes aim. Joe killed an 18 point buck, an Indiana state record. Joe said the reason he enjoys hunting so much isit gives him time to think

What got you interested in snowboarding? "A story in Seventeen Magazine."

"Most of the time I go to Bittersweet in Michigan, but I've also been to Boyne, Devil's Head, and a couple other places. Oh yeah! I've also gone in my living room."

What tricks can you do on your snowboard?

"I do 180's, 360's, front and backside grabs, halfcabs, nose and tail grabs, and a variable cornucopia of other little things that most people probably wouldn't understand."

How often do you go snowboarding?

"I usually go about twice a week, but I like to go as often as possible. If it were up to me, I would just pitch a tent on some mountain and live there."

Have you ever crashed big time while snowboarding?

"One time I was snowboarding as fast as I could down this hill and a friend and I were bouncing off this cliff, but right before the jump I caught an edge and went flying down the cliff on my face. When I got up there was blood all over the snow and my face. Snow was packed into every orifice of my body. For me snowboarding is an outlet like a way to get away from the rest of the world and just get stupid."

Milosh races Against time

How long have you been mountain biking?

"Since my freshman year, I sat at lunch with some guys who I eventually found out were into riding also. We talked about bicycling a lot, and we've been riding together ever since."

What kind of equipment do you use?

"I ride an aluminum frame made by Giant, with Manatou front suspension and a Shimano drive train."

Where do you go?

"My favorite place is Yankee Springs Mountain Bike Park near Kalamazoo, Michigan. I also like to ride at Deep River County Park when I don't have time for a car ride to Michigan."

How often do you go?

"I go mountain biking at least once a week when the weather permits. The rest of my time on a bicycle, due to a lack of mountainous or even hilly areas to ride in Crown Point, is on a road bike to keep in shape."

What time of the year are you most likely to go?

"I like to go anytime I can, but I prefer to ride in the summer because it seems more relaxed, without worries of school, and extra-curricular activities."

Have you been in any races?

"Last spring I tried racing and I did quite well. I plan to race more this summer and in the future."

Cenior, Tony Milosh races through the rough terrain at the fat-tirechallenge at a landfill in Munster, Indiana. In this race Tony placed third due to some technical difficulties in the early half of the race.

What are your responsibilities as president?

I will lead the entire delegation at I.U. this year during National Convention. I will also give a speech to the 2,000 students there. Here, at Crown Point, I will host President's Day in September. This is a fun day devoted to encouraging JCL participation. At almost 10 board meetings, I will conduct the proceedings. Also I will work with Governor Bayh in setting up a proclamation signing.

Can you do any tricks or stunts on the skates?

I can ride quarter pipes and rails. I can also do the Basics on both. My favorite trick is a 180 off a quarter pipe.

What was your most embarrassing moment while rollerblading?

I was on a quarter pipe and a car of girls drove up. I had my eye on one of the girls. I went up the ramp hit a 180, and on my way down my skate got stuck on the ramp and I fell, face first, right in front of her.

"Jakarta, Indonesia was my favorite place because it was always hot, and it really never had bad weather. The poverty was bad there, but after awhile, we learned to look past it."

Has moving around so much affected your schooling?

"No, I like moving around. I fit right in at the schools. I guess after awhile you get used to moving from school to school."

Do you plan to stay in Crown Point until you finish high school?

"Yes, I plan on staying in Crown Point until I graduate because now that I'm in high school, I think it would be harder to move into another high school. Moving is a lot easier when you are younger and you don't have to worry about a lot."

How do you handle being in cheerleading, band, drama, choir, and taking honor classes?

"I don't handle it. No, seriously. If I think about it too much I panic. Too much to do, too little time. I live by schedules, lists, appointment books, with little sleep. But seasons aren't that bad. Yeah, cheerleading and marching in fall, choir and drama more around Christmas, then cheerleading with basketball, plus homework year round. I'm always doing something. I really don't know what I'd do when I have free time. My family is really supportive because they know I love it all. I work better when I have little time anyway. I just take things one day at a time."

"I really love them all. I know, you're thinking, I say that to stay in good with all my teachers, but I couldn't decide. That's kind of why I do them all even though it's hectic. Whenever I'm doing one, that's my favorite. They are so different you can't compare."

What do you think your biggest achievement has been in the last two years? "That's tough. It could be marching a new instrument (sax), making varsity cheerleading, landing a lead in the musical, but I'd have to say getting a first on my Division I solo at state. It was the first time I'd ever sung a solo for contest, at my singing teacher's insistence. I was so nervous, but everyone believed in me so much. The support and singing my favorite song gave me courage. I don't think I'll ever forget it."

What were some of the obstacles you have had to overcome?

"I have problems with my knees and ankles so cheerleading and marching band have really made me have to stay in condition or deal with pain. It's not so bad anymore. I am a shy person. It may not seem like it, but stick me in a room with strangers and I'd die. But I've conquered my fear in ways. Getting up to sing or on stage, or in front of a crowd, I get a little nervous still. Not many of my old friends have gotten involved in these activities so it was hard to stick my neck out and make more friends. Obstacles only make victory all the more sweet."

How many years have you played the piano and when did you start teaching?

"I started taking lessons when I was five, so I've been playing for about eleven years now. I started teaching this past December. My aunt taught me for about nine years and my other teacher for about two."

"My piano teacher moved away to Georgia and I took over some of her students. Teaching piano is also a great way to make some fast money."

How many students do you have and what are their ages?

"I have five students right now. My youngest student is 7 and my oldest student is 12. My teacher had twelve students, but about six of them were close to my age and teaching them wouldn't have worked out."

Do you plan to make a career out of playing the piano?

" I don't plan to make this into a career, but I do plan to play the piano in the future. I might accompany people in concerts or contests. I may even try playing in college. I'm not sure what I want to do yet."

ophomore Suzanne Herndon practices piano techniques in the music room. Suzanne teaches piano lessons to kids under 12 years of age. She has been teaching for about two vears.

"I'm not sure what I'll do, but I plan to go to a technical school after graduation to learn some needed skills. I'll do something technical."

In machine shop is it difficult to follow the blueprints?

"It's not to hard to follow, but blueprints can be complicated. You just have to know what you are doing. We learn all about how to read them from the teachers before we ever have to use them."

Which project was most difficult to complete?

"The hardest job I did so far was a threading job in metal shop. It was difficult to get the threads just right so that what ever you screwed on them fit correctly."

What items did you make in woods?

 $^{\rm el}$ made a wooden chest and some speaker boxes for myself. I also did stuff for other people like cabinets. $^{\rm o}$

Do you work with wood or metal outside of school?

"Yes, I have built other speaker boxes at home, and I do some metal and body work on my own car."

ohn Builta uses a belt sander to sand down the side of a soon to be cabinet. John felt that wood and metal working would be important futher down the road in his life. He took both wood shop and metal s h o p classes.

Why do you backpack?

"I started because it was a different thing to do, but then I really liked it."

How did you get started?

"My family was going to go to Disney World on vacation, but my dad didn't really like the idea of doing that over again. He'd found out how he could get us involved and then we went."

"I went down the rock, into the the gorge (the deepest part of the rock), and then at twenty seven-miles down, I camped. Then everyone on the trip socialized and ate hotdogs."

Have you been on any other memorable trips since then?

"My second trip was at Isle Royal; its an island in the middle of Lake Superior. To get there, I had to go in a boat, and then I was allowed to swim. The water was really cold, but standing up in it waste deep I could see my feet. That was also one of the toughest climbs. On the way up I had to be careful where I put my foot because the rocks get slippery from moss."

Who have you gone backpacking with?

"I've just gone with my family. I think I like it better that way."

What do you like best about backpacking?

"I liked the solitude a lot. No one talks very much during the actual hike and there are no cars or anything making a lot of noise."

What was it like coming to the high school from Taft last year for one hour every day to take geometry?

"I felt out of place in the beginning, but eventually I felt like a normal student."

Is it uncomfortable for you being in sophomore and junior classes as a freshman?

"Occasionally, but it's usually not a problem. I just don't have many of my class-mates in the class with me. It's the same in every other way."

Do your teachers treat you any differently than the other students?

"No. They expect the same from me as they do from the older students. They don't treat me like I am any younger."

What kinds of activities are you interested in doing during your free time?

"I play flute in several different musical ensembles, and I read and work on our computer a lot."

Do you have any younger bothers or sisters?

"Yes, I have two younger bothers."

Do you think they look up to you?

"I think that they look up to me in some ways, in academic aspects, but I'm just their sister."

llison Horst finishes works on an assignment. She was transported to the high school to take geometry when she was in 8th grade. As a freshman she took advanced algebra, which usually consisted of sophomores and juniors.

Hartman's double Trouble

Since you are identical twins, have the two of you ever swapped places? "Yes. We kept changing clothes when we were little. We had a baby-sitter, and we really had her confused."

If one of you got hurt, could the other feel it?

"You have a sense of something being wrong when the other one is hurt or upset, but not the pain."

Do either of you ever know what the other is thinking or say something the other one is thinking?

"Yes. We often think of the same thing at the same time and sometimes say the exact same thing. We can even finish each other's sentences."

Do you have the same taste in guys?

"Yes. We like the same kind of guys."

Have you ever fought over a guy?

"Yes. But whoever the guy likes is who he goes with. The one left out gets mad, but it doesn't change anything."

Do the two of you ever get in fights?

"Yes. We fight a lot because it gets annoying when someone always looks like you and thinks like you all the time."

"I was encouraged by my teachers and choir director to try out for productions at St. Mary's. I enjoyed it so I decided to become involved in high school."

"Yes, I've been performing in plays and musicals since 6th grade. But recently I was in the Fall high school performance of You Can't Take it With You in which I played the supporting role of Mr. De Pinna."

How do you prepare for the play and memorize your lines?

"In order to prepare for the plays, I analyze my character and his behavior and how I can best portray that character. To memorize lines, I run them constantly with a friend or family member every chance I get."

Do you plan to pursue a career in acting?

"I'd really like to because I enjoy it very much. Even if I don't act as a job, I'd like to definitely act as a hobby."

How did it feel to be a freshman on the varsity soccer team?

"Great. Proud. I was thankful to all of my coaches for equipping me with the skills I needed and giving me a chance."

How long have you been playing soccer and what is your favorite position? "I have been playing soccer for 11 years. (Since I was 4 years old.) My favorite position is forward or midfield."

Do you play any other sports?

"I like to play basketball in my pass time."

What made you choose to play soccer over all the other sports?

"I enjoy the physical aspects and the necessity of skill. Not all sports require physical play. Soccer was the first sport I learned to play, and it was the first sport in which I was on an organized team."

Why do you like soccer so much?

"I'm good at it. I like to play physical sports and soccer lets me play physical. It also allows me an opportunity to show off the skills I have and the hard work I have put into it."

Skidmore Takes a bow

What was it like getting the lead role in the musical How to Succeed at Business Without Really Trying?

"I think shock was my first emotion, I remember thinking during the auditions 'If I could at least make the chorus.' The part of Hedy Lakue was so much fun to act. I loved all her lines, her voice, her walk and her role as a secretary. It was a lot of work to build up the character I wanted the audience to see, but the feeling I got when I was on stage performing was so unexplainable."

"I started playing the piano at age 6. My mom always played and when we first bought our grand piano, I couldn't keep my fingers off the keys. I began lessons and flew through my books. The piano was a new interest for me and I have loved it ever since."

What got you interested in singing and how long have you been singing? "This is my first year in choir, yet I have grown up in a singing family. My mom teaches voice along with piano and has helped me a lot to improve my singing. Ever since I was little, my parents got me used to singing each week in front of the church. I never realized how much that could have an effect on my future, but it really taught me stage presence and how to be comfortable in front of an audience."

Do you plan to pursue a career in singing or playing the piano?

"I definitely plan on pursuing a career involving music, yet I'm still not sure where or what that may be. Music is and will always be my life so whether I end up teaching others or performing for others, I will be happy."

Have you won any awards for singing or playing the piano?

"I have won various awards through school for outstanding musician or leadership qualities. Just in this past year, I received a scholarship through the Northwest Indiana Youth Symphony I play the cello in. They paid for a music camp I attended in Michigan. This summer I have been offered a chance to play in a chamber orchestra in Rome. Yet, the biggest award I have received for voice is obviously the part of Hedy Lakue in the school musical. It will always be my most memorable."

ort aying Heda Lakue, Jen Skidmore struts her stuff on stage during the performance of How to Suceed in Business Without Really Trying. Jen played the piano, sang in the choir and played the cello in the orchestra too.

2021 RETTY PENNY

THEY SUPPORTED OUR FUND-RAISERS, SUPPLIED US WITH JOBS WHEN WE NEEDED MONEY, AND OFFERED US ANYTHING THEY COULD WHENEVER POSSIBLE. EVEN IF IT "COST A PRETTY PENNY" OUR LOCAL BUSINESSES ACTED AS A BACKBONE FOR OUR FINANCIAL NEEDS.

BUSINESSES SUCH AS WALGREENS, ROAST BEERS 'N MORE, MC DONALDS, AND MIKE'S SPORTING GOODS ALLOWED US TO

A LITTLE EXPERIENCE AND EARN SOME EXTRA
MONEY THROUGH STUDENT EMPLOYMENT. STUDENTS WHO COULDN'T DRIVE OFTEN FOUND IT EASY TO FIND A BUSINESS NEAR THEIR HOME OR SCHOOL WHERE THEY COULD WORK. AS THE SUMMER
ROLLED IN, EVEN MORE JOBS OPENED UP FOR STUDENTS. GOLF COURSE MAINTENANCE, LITTLE LEAGUE UMPIRING, OR LAWN MOWING PROVIDED OPPORTUNITIES FOR STUDENTS TO WORK OUTSIDE IN THE PLEASANT SUMMER WEATHER. MOST STUDENTS ENJOYED GETTING TAN AS THEY EARNED MONEY.

DURING LUNCH HOUR, MANY STUDENTS GAVE SUPPORT BACK TO THE LOCAL BUSINESSES. STUDENTS PACKED INTO RESTAURANTS CLOSE TO SCHOOL SUCH AS MC DONALD'S, FIESTA MEXICO,
PAPA'S DELI, DOMINOS, AND CHICAGO'S TO NAME A FEW. EVEN THOUGH IT BROKE SCHOOL RULES,
SOME STUDENTS EVEN DROVE TO PLACES SUCH AS TACO BELL AND BURGER KING SINCE IT WAS TOO FAR TO WALK. HOWEVER, ONCE THE NEW SECURITY GUARD WAS HIRED, THIS STOPPED.

BUSINESSES IN TOWN ALSO OFFERED STUDENTS THE ADVANTAGE OF SHOPPING LOCALLY. JUST ABOUT ANY TYPE OF FOOD, FROM HAMBURGERS TO GREEK GYROS COULD BE FOUND AROUND THE

SQUARE. ALSO, OFFICE SUPPLIES, CLOTHES, JEWELRY, BASEBALL
CARDS, AND ANTIQUES COULD ALL BE PURCHASED WITHIN A SHORT DISTANGE FROM EACH OTHER.

TO WAYASE IT ALL UP, OUR LOCAL BUSINESSES NEVER THOUGHT TWICE ABOUT HELPING US OUT.

ANYTIME WE NEEDED SOMETHING, OUR FIRST ATTEMPT TO GET IT WAS FROM A LOCAL BUSINESS. THEIR ADVERTISING DOLLARS

"ARE YOU ALWAYS "ON THE UP-AND-UP?"

"Yes, because I know there will be consequences if I am not. Most of these consequences are bad and I do not want to get in trouble, so I am always on the upand-up."

- Chris Costakis, senior

"Yes. Usually I am, but sometimes when I am really tired it is hard to be on the up-and-up."

Mandy LaMere, senior

"No. It is very hard to be on the up-and-up as a senior because there is so much pressure with college and the decisions that are coming up in our lives, but there is no reason to be down."

- Tara Reilly, senior

"Yes. I always try to be on the up-and-up. I hate liars so I always tell the truth because I believe it will get me further in life."

- Mark Butcher, senior

DID YOU EVER FEEL LIKE "LAYING DOWN ON THE JOB?"

"Yes, whenever you stay up late after a long weekend, it seems you can't keep your eyes open during class."

 Margaret Smith, sophomore

"Yes, when I'm in class and there is a movie on, I just close my eyes and go to sleep."

- Charlie Gore, sophomore

"Yes, lack of sleep is the biggest problem. I never get enough sleep, so it is hard to stay awake in school."

 Mandy Sealscott, sophomore

"Yes, because after I go over the same thing everyday and do the same thing everyday, it gets very boring."

DO YOU THINK THAT
OUR SCHOOL
SNUFF?"

"Definitely not! Our school is past due for a funeral. It is either too hot or too cold, the ceiling is falling apart, and there aren't enough classrooms for all of the teachers."

- Shaundra Hyre, junior

"Oh no! Everyday there is something that is not working. The heater doesn't work, there is a flood in the building, there is always something broken!"

- Brooke Austgen, junior

"No! I'm am very upset at our school and it is very bad. It is too cold, our school is not a meat locker, it is supposed to be a good building."

- Ginny Johnson, junior

"No, because it is always burning hot in my Spanish class and cold in my English class. This school is definitely not up-to-par."

HOW DO YOU GET MONEY WHEN YOU ARE "FLAT BROKE?"

"When I want or need money, I go out and find a job so I have money and I am not flat broke."

- Scott Jones, freshman

"I wash my mom's car. If I do this, she will usually give me money when I ask for it, then I have money to buy what I want."

- Josh Hamilton, freshman

"I save my lunch money for a few days and do not eat. This way I can buy what I want to and I do not have to always ask my parents for money."

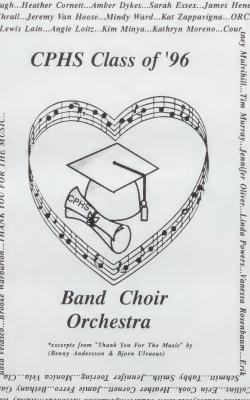

- Nicole Makarek, freshman

"Usually I ask my parents for money to spend on the weekend or whenever I need it, but that does not always work, so I have to ask my friends for money sometimes too."

AS THE END OF THE YEAR "CAME TO MIND" STUDENTS FOUND IT DIFFICULT TO CONCENTRATE ON SCHOOLWORK. BEING "FOOTLOOSE AND FANCY FREE" AND "SLEEPING TIL NOON" OCCUPIED THEIR MINDS. THE CONDITIONS OUTSIDE DIDN'T HELP THE SITUATION. "LOVELY WEATHER FOR DUCKS" VISITED THE AREA FOR MOST OF THE SPRING WITH TEMPERATURES RANGING FROM 30 TO 80 DEGREES ON ALTERNATING DAYS. THE UNCOOPERATIVE WEATHER REALLY "THREW A MONKEY WRENCH" INTO THE SPRING ATHLETIC PROGRAM; HOWEVER, THE TEAMS STILL FOUND SUCCESS. ONE OF THE GOLFERS FOUND HIS "ACE IN THE HOLE" WINNING THE UBBLE TOURNAMENT FOR THE FIRST TIME IN BULLDOG HISTORY, THE GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM "SERVED THEIR PURPOSE" TAKING THE SECTIONAL, AND THE GIRLS' RELAY TEAM "JOCKEYED FOR POSITION" BREAKING A SCHOOL RECORD AND PLACING AT STATE FINALS.

NOT ONLY THE ATHLETIC TEAMS WERE "ON THE FAST TRACK." THE ORCHESTRA RECEIVED "A BIG SEND-OFF" WHEN IT ACCEPTED AN INVITATION TO PLAY AT THE EPCOT CENTER IN ORLANDO; THE CHOIR, ORCHESTRA, AND THESPIANS "JOINED FORCES" "SETTING THE STAGE" FOR A CROWD PLEASING SPRING MUSICAL, AND "IN THE FINAL ANALYSIS," THE COUNSELING OFFICE DISCOVERED THAT SIX STUDENTS QUALIFIED AS VALEDICTORIANS.

"PLAYING POLITICS" CONTINUED TO BE AN EVER-PRESENT PASTIME FOR THE SCHOOL COMMUNITY. TEACHERS AND SENIORS "BACKED THE RIGHT HORSE" WHEN THEY CAMPAIGNED AND VOTED FOR THEIR CHOICE FOR SCHOOL BOARD, AND STUDENTS, ALONG WITH THEIR PARENTS, "THRASHED IT OUT" WITH THE ADMINISTRATION AT A CROWDED SCHOOL BOARD MEETING WHEN THE CORPORATION DECIDED TO CUT THE MUSIC PROGRAM.

FLOODED HALL WAYS, PICKETING STUDENTS, FIVE FIRE ALARMS IN ONE DAY, A BOMB THREAT, BEACH BALLS AT GRADUATION, SECURITY GUARDS, AND A NEW ADMINISTRATION "KEPT US ON OUR TOES." WORKING TOGETHER, WE MANAGED TO "KEEP THE WOLVES FROM THE DOOR" AND AT THE SAME TIME, CREATE A FEW FIREWORKS.- DAN BAIDINGER

aughing at the participants on stage at the Lip Sync contest, students packed the cafeteria to get a close view at the entertainment. The Lip Sync contest usually brought large crowds.

itting on the stairs during their lunch break, sophomores Brook Homrich and Andrea Claussen talk about their day. Some students chose to find a spot alone where no one could bother them.

elebrating after a football victory, junior Mike Sherror and senior Lewis Lain scream out their excitement. Many fans came to football games not only to watch the team, but to also hang out with friends.

"I ENJOYED CONCERT BAND SO MUCH BECAUSE BEING ABLE TO PERFORM IN FRONT OF LARGE CROWDS WAS SOMETHING THAT I THOUGHT WOULD HELP ME IN THE FUTUTE. ALSO, CONCERT BAND ALLOWED ME TO SPEND TIME WITH MY SPECIAL FRIENDS WHO ARE ALSO IN BAND. I ALSO LEARNED A LOT ABOUT SELF DISCIPLINE AND RESPONSIBILITY. YOU HAD TO KNOW YOUR STUFF OR YOU WOULD LET DOWN THE OTHERS." SAID SOPHOMORE JAMIE SHEBISH.

Exalibur, volume 80, was produced by the yearbook class at Crown Point High School in Crown Point, IN, and printed by Herff Jones Yearbooks in Shawnee Mission, KS. The account was serviced by Herff Jones yearbook representative Susan Taylor and customer service advisor Julie Bogart. The theme "Catch a Phrase" was developed by the staff and advisor, along with the cover. The cover incorporated gold foiled type on an embossed logo. The endsheets are printed on white stock using gold foiled type and teal #329. The book's 272 pages are printed on 80 pound Bordeaux, except for the 16 color pages of the senior portraits, which are printed on 120 Boreaux. The 1996 Excalibur includes 31 full color pages and 16 pages of spot color, using teal and gold ink. All body copy is in 12 pt. Helvetica, and captions are 10pt. Helvetica. Headline fonts include Swing, Nadianne, Machine, Helvetica, and Pepita. The staff submitted the type on disks using Heff Jones Pagemaster disk program. The Excalibur was produced by using PageMaster 5.0 on 20 Power Macintosh computers. Pictorial coverage was provided by staff photographers and Giolas Photographers of Merrillville IN. Senior pictures were also presented by Giolas and underclass pictures were presented by Root Photography of Chicago, Ill. A total of 1050 copies were presold, with prices ranging from $27 to $32, according to the date of purchase. The Excalibur is a member of the Indiana High School Press Association, Columbia Press Association, the National High School Press Association, and Quill and Scroll.
